THINGS OF VALUE.

The Rooster—The farmer and his son are going to that fourth rate performance of Hamlet tonight. Setting Hen—Oh, dear I isn't that too bad? Just as these eggs are almost hatched, too!

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all diseases which medicine—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailties systems are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

Mrs Snags—It is said that the big diamond captured from a smuggler in New York never belonged to Maximilian's crown at all.

Mr Snags—Have they found the hotel clerk who lost the gem?

Inflammatory Rheumatism.—Mr. S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. THOMAS' EUCALYPTI OIL for inflammatory rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was then unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused me excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. THOMAS' OIL on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me."

Atress—'I'll not play another night in the same cast with that man.

Manager—Has he been rude to you?

Atress—Every time he has to kiss me in the play he makes a face at me.

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen, that often in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tubercular consumption. Give heed to cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Bick's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and all lung disease.

Sunday School Teacher (looking around the class)—Boys, isn't this class smaller than usual?

Boys (in chorus)—Yes'm; that little boy 'at wared th' Bryan button says he's quit.

A Pill for Generous Eaters.—There are many persons of hearty appetite and poor digestion who, after a heavy meal, are subject to much suffering. The food of which they have partaken lies like lead in their stomachs. Headache, depression, a smothering feeling follow. One so afflicted is said to be a business or work of any kind. In this condition Parlee's Vegetable Pills will bring relief. They will assist the assimilation of the aliment, and used according to direction will restore healthy digestion.

'Bington, I see, has got a place writing for the Sunday papers.'

'Indeed! Then he has given up all hopes of being a literary man.'

It is a Liver Pill—Many of the ailments that man has to contend with have their origin in a disordered liver, which is a delicate organ, peculiarly perceptible to the disturbances that come from irregular habits or lack of care of eating or drinking. This accounts for the great many liver regulations now pressed on the attention of sufferers. Of these there is none superior to Parlee's Vegetable Pills. Their operation though gentle is effective, and the most delicate can use them.

'I see,' said the Wisconsin girl, 'they are going to start an ideal newspaper in New York.'

'Yes,' the Chicago man replied. 'Now what is your idea of an ideal newspaper?'

'Well,' she answered, 'it ought to have a large department for original poetry.'

'Fate is cruel, murmured the man who had gathered in $200,000,000. 'I never had the dyspepsia till I had enough money to get what I wanted to eat.'

'Lord Fewcents shows wonderful facility in adapting himself to American ways.'

'How so?'

'Why, when he came over here for a wealthy bride, instead of going about it in the usual way he advertised in the papers that he was prepared to receive bids for his title from prospective fathers-in-law.'
