

Summer is at its height and the people are really enjoying it. As yet very few excessively warm days have given us cause to grumble, and as for the fog, it has been most considerate. Bright sunny weather, with delightful cooling breezes has characterized July and August so far—a summer remarkable for its pleasantness and evenness in temperature.

Among those who are camping along the river or sojourning in yachts are:

The families of Messrs. Edgar Fairweather and Wm. Holder on Millidgeville Island.

Mr. George Smith and family opposite John O. Vanwart's hotel.

Mr. Matthews and family of Gondola Point, near the Cedars.

O. H. Warrick's sons near Belyea's lighthouse, opposite Watters' Landing.

Rev. Dr. Lindsay Parker of Brooklyn, N. Y., and daughters are touring the river in their yacht "A morel."

The schooner-yacht "Windward" is sailing about the river with a party of six young ladies and six young gentlemen. At Fredericton, Evandale and other points this jolly party made everybody merry.

The "Grayling", a trim schooner-yacht, with Mayor Daniel, Col. Armstrong, Major Edwards, W. Watson Allen, and others aboard is also doing the river.

The outing held by the St. John Local Union of Christian Endeavor at Watters' Landing on Tuesday last was one of the most successful affairs of an excursion nature that ever went out of this city. The big steamer Victoria was simply packed with Endeavorers, over 500 tickets being taken at the gangway. The sail up river, the bounteous supper served in a most efficient manner by 75 waiters and waitresses, the short programme of addresses and songs on the hillside, and the moonlight trip back to town, all combined to make the event long to be remembered, and to stimulate the brotherly and sisterly feeling among C. E. workers.

Already the Baptist churches in this city are appointing their delegates to the annual Convention to be held in Halifax late in the month. About thirty persons will represent St. John. This includes delegates to the Woman's Missionary Baptist Union which meets simultaneously at Windsor.

A photo recently sent home reveals him in the regiments of that wild and woolly country, and right on the prairie. He writes that he likes his new life, and is ambitious to own a ranch of his own. If Guy's pluck and clear-headedness are still with him it is safe to predict his ambitions in this direction will ere long be realized.

One of the most successful and enjoyable events of the week, socially, was the moonlight excursion of the Neptune Rowing club on Monday evening. Tickets for the outing were to be procured only from members of the club, and the number was limited so the boat was not over crowded. The night was warm and fine, although the moon broke through the clouds only for a minute or two, and that just before the David Weston cast off from the wharf at Indiantown shortly after eight o'clock. Before the steamer was out of sight of the city the orchestra struck up and from that time until Indiantown was reached at a quarter to twelve, dancing was the chief amusement. While the young people danced the older ones sat on deck and enjoyed a quiet chat. The steamer ran up as far as Belyea's Point and then steamed slowly down river, arriving home only too soon for the majority of the passengers. There was not a hitch of any kind in the arrangements, every thing passing off with the smoothness which has become characteristic of any function which the Neptune Rowing club takes in hand. Mrs. W. E. Vroom, Mrs. J. V. Ellis, Mrs. F. E. Harrington, Mrs. T. Walker, Mrs. Geo. West Jones, Mrs. J. Morris Robinson and Mrs. Alfred Porter, were the chaperones. The catering was done by Mr. E. Littler to the entire satisfaction of the club.
