"My mother-in-law has gone to the mountains." ' Yes; she'll have to admit she has found some time that she can't walk over.' There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir-the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated dis-ases rooted in the system of the patient- what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, nowever, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the trailest systems are led into convalescense and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a cisease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which. being stimulated, courses throughout the veine, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereb making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance-result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, he we given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists' this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

'I might have known better than to trust my money to that broker.' 'Why so? Are appearances against him?'
'Fo, comfound him! It's disappearance.'

A PLEASANT MEDICINE -There are some pills which have no other purpose evidently than to peget painful internal disturbances in the patient, adding to his troubles and perplexities rather than diminishing them. One might as well swallow some corrosive material. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills have not this disagreeable and injurious property. They are easy to take, are not unpleasant to the taste, and their action is mild and soothing. A trial of them will prove this. They offer peace to the Great Things From Little Causes Grow.-It takes very little to derange the stomach. The cause may be slight, a cold, something esten or drunk, anxiety, worry, or some other simple cause. But if precautions be not taken, this simple cause may have most serious co sequences. Many a chronically debilitated constitution today owes its destruction to simple causes not dealt with in time. Keep the digestive apparatus in a healthy condition and all will be well. [Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are better than any other for the purposes.

After trying various remedies, and consulting several doctors, without obtaining any relief. I was advised to try DR. THOMAS' ECLEC RIC OIL. I warmed the Oil. and poured a little of it into my ear, and bef re one half the bottle was used my hearing was completely restored. I have heard of other cases of deafness being cured by the use of this medicine." He—I love the ground you walk on! She—I don't blame you. It's worth $890 a front

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen in tubercular consumption. Give heed to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and all lung disease. 'After all' ssserted the youthful machine politican, I belidve in 'ring' methods.'

'Oh, George!' she cried, 'this is so sudden.'

Prescriptions

Are something that require the utmost care in dispensing. It has been my aim for the past nineteen years to procure the purest drngs and chemicals and then use the utmost care to dispense every prescription to the physician's entire satisfaction. When you feel ill do not run away with the idea that some quack nostrum would be best, but consult your family physician. Find the real cause of your trouble and have your prescriptions accurately dispensed from the purest drugs by the most competent dispensers of the reliable Pharmacy.
