THINGS OF VALUE.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panaces, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is beir-the very pature of many curstives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient- what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, nowever, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a srund unadulterated state a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailest systems are led into convalescense and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and retreshing sleep -imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereb making activity a necessary result. strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance-result, improved appetite Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, h ve given to the rublic their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists' this wine approaches rearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

'Honesty is the best policy of course,' more lized Uncle allen Sparks, who had just given the s esor a statement of his worldly wealth, 'but it's expensive.

Games of all kinds were provided for the young people, an old barn had a fine floor laid for those who cared to trip the light fantastic and which was fully appreciated and enjoyed by the young people. Refreshment booths were well supplied with confectionery, ice crean etc, and were well patroniz :d. During the evening an immense bonfire was built. in the light of which the more mischievious spirits pulled down an ancient chimney which had stood and braved the storms of many years, which was also a mark to the memory of the late John Cotton whose labor and perseverance had built it probably almost a century ago; it consisted entirely of stone and clay cement and was quite a land mark to the place. Those who stayed for the evening festivities did not reach home till a late hour, all having had a thoroughly good time. FOR THE OVERWORKED .- What are the causes of despondency and melancholy? A disordered liver is one cause and a prime one. A disordered liver means a disordered stomach, and a disordered stomach means disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection and the vic'im feels sick all over. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy in this state and relief will follow their use.

'I think papa is dresdful,' sobbed little 3-year-old Margie, who had just been chastised by her father. 'Was he the only man you could get, mamma?'

SOMETHING MORE THAN & PURGATIV .- To purge is the only effect of many pills now on the market Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are more than a purgative. They strengthen the stomach, where other pills weaken it. They cleanse the blood by regulating the liver and Kidneys, and they stimulate where other pill compound depress. Nothing of an injurious nature, used for merely purgative powers, enters into their compositions.

> "Chicago gas for thirty cents !" Seems like a tumble in expense. And yet her gas would give offence If it should burn like thirty cents.

It may be only a trifling cold, but reglect it and it will fasten its fangs in your lungs, and yon will soon be carried to an untimely grave. In this country we have sudden changes and must expect to have coughs and colds. We cannot avoid them, but we can effect a cure by using Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that has never been known to fail in curing coughs, colds, bron-chitis and all affections of the throat, lungs and

'Grandma,' said four-year-old Harry one warm afternoon, "don't you think you would be cooler if you took the windows out of your syectacles?"

He has Tried Jt .- Mr. John Anderson, Kinloss, writes "I venture to say few, if any, have re-ceived greater benefit from the use of DR. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL, than I have. I have used it regularly for over ten years, and have recommended it to all sufferers I knew of. and they also found it of great virtue in cases of severe bronchitis and incipient consumption."

In the country in the summer the self-binder has the call. But they all turn out and listen to spell-binders in the fall.
