Rev. W. Camp was the officiating clergyman.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a dainty bridal frock of white serge with ribbon trimmings and, I was told, looked very sweet. An elaborate supper was served shortly after the ceremony.

The presents, of which there were many, were very handsome and useful and clearly evinced the popularity of both bride and bridegroom. The honeymoon is being spent between the homes of the parents of the bridal couple.

Mr. Smith returns to Bar Harbor shortly to take up his religious work, while Mr. Boyle will remain in town for probably a month or so yet, as Mrs. Boyle, the bride's mother, is very ill and the attendance of the daughter is needed in caring for her. Folk around here are fully conscious

Mrs Davidson's party was as pleasant as her parties usually are for both Mr and Mrs Davidson are famed as perfect hosts and to be invited to their home is to be sure of enjoyment. THINGS OF VALUE.

A Tonic for the Debilitated.—Parnelle's Vegetable Pills by acting mildly but thoroughly on the secretions of the body are a valuable tonic stimulating the lagging organs to healthful action and restoring them to full vigor. They can be taken in graduated doses and so used that they can be discontinued at any time without return of the ailments which they were used to allay.

You cannot satisfy some men,
No matter how you try;
Give them the bread they ask for
And they will kick for pie.

TO PREVENT IS BETTER THAN TO REWENT.—A little medicine in the shape of the wonderful pellets which are known as Parnelle's Vegetable Pills, administered at the proper time and with the directions adhered to often prevent a serious attack of sickness and save money which would go to the doctor. In all irregularities of the digestive organs they are an invaluable corrective and by cleansing the blood they clear the skin of imperfections.

McJigger—Jigsby's turned over a new leaf. He says he reafter he's going to work with a will.

Thimblebob—Yes, he has to; he was left out of his rich uncle's.

The Public should bear in mind that Dr. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

"I hear that you bought a gold brick down to the city, Uncle Reuben," said a resident of Clover township to a returned traveler.

"That's what the feller said it was," replied Uncle Reuben, ruefully, "but it turned out to be brass."

Pleasant as syrup; nothing equals it as a worm medicine; the worm is Mother Graves, Worm Exterminator. The greatest worm destroyer of the age.

Cummin Scent—I'm glad to see that the style runs to broad-toed shoes nowadays. The pointed toe was injurious.

Jack Klesan—You bet it was! I can remember we had when old Coldrox induced me to stop calling on his daughter.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

Reporter—In my article about Mr Longbow I said he was "lying at death's door." You changed it to "laying." That isn't right.

Copy editor—I know it isn't. But it's better to make a grammatical error than hurt the feelings of his family. Mr Longbow's reputation for veracity is not good.

You need not cough all night and disturb your friends; there is no occasion for you running the risk of contracting inflammation of the lungs or consumption, while you can get Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. This medicine cures coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and the throat and chest troubles. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which immediately relieves the throat and lungs from viscid phlegm.

Politician—My boy, the door to every successful business is labeled "Push."

Thoughtful youth—Isn't your business a successful one, sir?

Politician—Well, yes, I flatter myself that it is very successful. Why do you ask that?

Thoughtful youth—Because, sir, I see your door is labelled "Pull."

The Young Man—Johnny, your sister's hair curls naturally, doesn't it?

Johnny (the young woman's younger brother)—O, yes. She just naturally curls it.
