Feb 27 - The departure of the Milwaukee is the only event talked of in social circles. The officers made themselves very popular and all the troops had a pleasant time while in Halifax. Among those who came here to see the contingent away were Rev. George S. Milligan of St. John, and his sister Miss Ethel. They will remain several weeks, so as to view the sights of Canada's winter port and the departure of the Strathcona Horse contingent.

The friends of Dr. McKay port physician, are glad to see him again attending his duties, after the accident of breaking his ankle a few weeks ago. The funeral of Capt. Clarkson this week formed a most convincing tribute to the esteem in which the deceased was held. St. Luke's cathedral was filled, and the body reposed in front of the chancel, the casket draped with the Union Jack and hidden from view by the many beautiful floral tokens.

The floral tributes included: Wreath, Lt. Gov. and Lady Daly. Wreath, Cathedral choir. Lyre, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Wilkinson. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kenny. Cross, Mrs. West. Cross, Friends at the Berkeley. Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jones. Wreath Lord and Lady Wm. Seymour. Wreath, Mrs. and the Misses O'Dell. Wreath, Studley Quoit club. Cross, Mrs. and the Misses Seaton. Sheaf, Mrs. Thomson. Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kenny. Cross, N. S. Board of Fire Underwriters. Cross, Col. and Mrs. Stewart.

The funeral of Miss Bertha Bonfiller took place from the residence of Mrs. E. M. Boutillier. The remains were brought home from Malrose, Mass., where deceased has resided for over a year. The news of her death came as a shock to relatives and friends in this city, and the case is made more particularly sad by the fact that it will be weeks, perhaps months before the bereaved parents residing on Sable Island shall have become acquainted with their loss, and then only when one of the Government steamers go to the island, perhaps in the spring. Miss Bonfiller was visiting friends in Halifax in 1898, and was much liked by all who made her acquaintance. She had intended adopting professional nursing as her vocation in life.

Mr. Jas. A. Winfield, who returned to England last August on account of ill health, has now fully recovered. He has accepted a temporary Mission in one of the large East End parishes of London and conducts services in the Limehouse parish church, with the consent of the Bishop. Mr. Winfield hopes to be soon working again in his own Diocese of Nova Scotia.

Miss Trixy Rutherford, daughter of the late Con. Dan. Rutherford, Halifax, who is now in Somerville, Mass., with her mother, is to be married next April to an agent of the Boston and Maine rail way. C. C. Starr, wife and daughter, leave for New York on Monday morning, enroute for Southern California, seeking health for their daughter, who has been unwell for some time. Lt. Col. John Hood, of Montreal, is at the Halifax. Mr. Whit, Miss Alice Lawson, Mrs. W. H. McLeod, H. H. Grant, T. S. Grant, were passengers by Duart Castle for West Indies.

Rev. Dr. Archibald, once pastor of Kentville presbyterian church is now actively engaged in removing the debt resting on his church at Brookline, Mass. Mr. David Steck, Milford, is attending Kaulback and Scherman's Commercial College, Halifax. Rev. F. S. Coffin, Lower Stewiacke, was unable owing to illness to occupy his pulpit on the 18th February. It is now thought that the fine new Methodist church will be opened on or about Easter. Capt. Liswell, Burlington, drove through on Tuesday. The roads are very bad in some places after the severe rain storm. The exhibition of fancy and figure skating at the rink on Monday evening by Al. G. Stevens, Kentville, was a good one. The attendance was small. The 6th Batt. band played during the intermissions. Mr. Stevens is very graceful in his movements and is one of the best figure skaters in the maritime provinces. Captain Aylward we are pleased to learn, has so far recovered from his recent serious illness as to be able to sit up for a few hours each day. Mr. F. W. McNeill arrived at his home in Woodville a few weeks ago. Since the fall of '98 Mr. McNeill had been working in Portsmouth, N. H. He thinks "There's no place like home." Mr. Anthony Sanford returned home to Burlington from Halifax last week where he spent a fortnight on business and pleasure combined. He was visiting his brother Mr. I. S. Sanford and family. Mrs. Wm. Shaw and Miss Annie Allison returned.

Eruptions and skin diseases are a blot upon

These blots are actually blood blots. To cure them lotions and outward applications are useless. The blood must be cured, before the skin becomes clean. That great medicine for the stomach and blood, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is most effective in cleansing the complexion and healing diseases which defile and deface the skin. It acts directly upon the stomach and the organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the action of the blood-making glands, and expels from the system the lurking poisons which defile the blood and through it deface the skin. No alcohol or other intoxicant, no opium or other narcotic is contained in "Golden Medical Discovery." It may pay a dealer better to sell you a substitute which is less popular but more profitable than the "Discovery." It won't pay you to buy it, if you want a reliable remedy. "For about one year and a half my face was very badly broken out," writes Miss Carrie Adams, of 116 West Main St., Battle Creek, Mich. "I spent a great deal of money with doctors and for different kinds of medicine, but received no benefit. At last I read one of your advertisements in a paper, and obtained a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Before I had taken one bottle of this medicine I noticed a change, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured. I can well recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to any one similarly afflicted."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, is sent free by the author, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of stamps to cover expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound edition.

Christ Church was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, when many friends and acquaintances were present to witness the wedding of Mr. Frank A. Creighton, C. E., of Sydney, C. B., son of T. G. Creighton, Esq., of Dartmouth, to Miss Minnie Gertrude Ouseley, daughter of J. W. Ouseley, Esq. The only guests present were the immediate family.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Maynard, D. D., assisted by the rector. While the organist, Mr. Vernon Eville, played the bridal march from Lohengrin, the bride party entered, and the attention of all was immediately centred on the bride, who wore a becoming tailor-made suit of blue cloth, a large picture hat of black silk velvet, black ostrich tips, white chiffon and buckles. The bride's bouquet was of bride's roses, carnations and maiden-hair fern. Miss Georgie Ouseley was bride maid, and wore a black-colored suit, a large hat of the same shade, with trimmings of pink chiffon and fawn feathers, and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations and maiden-hair fern. Mr. A. S. Creighton, brother of the groom, was the groomsmen, the choir, of which the bride was a member, sang appropriate music. The bride was given away by her father. The ceremony ended, the bridal party left the church while Mendelssohn's wedding march was being played. They were driven to the station, where friends had gathered to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Creighton, who took the evening train for Halifax, leaving for Sydney, C. B., on Monday morning, their future home. There were many beautiful wedding gifts from friends and relatives.

Does Tea Induce Sleeplessness?

No; good pure tea, properly steeped will prevent a healthy person from sleeping - on the contrary, a tea like that sold in Tettey's Elephant Brand packets, is a nerve tonic, and distinctly beneficial.
