THINGS OF VALUE.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailties of the system are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, raised by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

"Some of the most successful men in politics," he said thoughtfully, have been those who have had little to say.

Nature she was indignant.

"There you go!" she exclaimed. "Always doing your best to discourage women."

There are so many cough medicines in the market, that it is sometimes difficult to tell what to buy; but if we had a cough, a cold, or any affliction of the throat or lungs, we would try "Bick's" Anti-Consumptive Syrup. Those who have used it think it is far ahead of all other preparations recommended for such complaints. The little folks like it as it is as pleasant as syrup.

Sur-Sign.—"I am certain that Sue is engaged to Mr. Davey," said Miss Kitch to Miss Flynn. "Why, she never mentions him." "That is what convinces me. She used to make all manner of fun of him."

A Life saved.—Mr. James Bryson, Cameron, states: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by the physician. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' ELECTRIC OIL, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on his advice, I procured the medicine, and less than a half bottle cured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

"How do you know he is a lat or leader?"

"Well, I saw a union card in his possession. That shows he's a union man, doesn't it?"

"Yes."

"And I happen to know he never works. That proves him to be a leader."

Sure Regulators.—Mandrake and Dandelion are known to exert a powerful influence on the liver and kidneys, restoring them to healthy action, inducing a regular flow of the secretions and imparting to the organs complete power to perform their functions. These valuable ingredients enter into the composition of Farnesie's Vegetable Pills and serve to render them the agreeable and salutary medicine they are. There are few pills so effective as they in their action.

Evil communications.—Alice—I do wish Edgar wouldn't associate with doctors.

Mamma—Why, daughter?

Alice—Oh, some doctor he knows has told him where his appendix is; and now he thinks he's got a pain in it.

They Wake the Torpid Energies.—Machinery not properly supervised and left to run itself, very soon shows fault in its working. It is the same with the digestive organs. Unregulated from time to time they are likely to become torpid and throw the whole system out of gear. Farnesie's Vegetable Pills are made to meet such cases. They restore to the full the flagging faculties, and bring into order all parts of the mechanism.

"The price of hard coal is down."

"Of course. That's always the way when I'm just through buying."

Asthma Gasps.

Despairing Victims of Asthma

Find New Hope and Thorough

Cure in

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Too many asthma sufferers give up their search for cure, believing that their particular case is beyond the control of scientific treatment.

It is unnecessary to describe the miseries of the asthma victim, with livid face and staring eyes, frantically gasping for breath.

What we would do is to point all such to a new hope in Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the one great remedy which has proven its efficiency not only as a prompt relief, but also as a thorough cure for asthma.

The gratitude of scores and hundreds of cured ones is expressed in just such words as the following from Mrs. George Budcen, Putnamville, Ont.:-

Mrs. George Budcen, Putnamville, Ont., says: "I feel it my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, as I had the Asthma very bad; could get nothing to do me good. A friend of mine persuaded me to try this remedy, as he had tried it, and it proved successful. I tried it and it cured me. I am thankful today to say I am a well woman through the use of this remedy. I keep it in the house all the time, and would not be without it."

It is impossible to imagine a better treatment for asthma than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It soothes the excited nerves, clears the bronchial tubes, gives prompt relief to the frightful spasms and, when used regularly, thoroughly and permanently cures asthma. 25 cents a large bottle at all dealers, or Edmanan, Bates & Co., Toronto.

"Cold in the head" and catarrh, with its distressing symptoms, are promptly cured by Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. 25 cents a box; blow free.
