

Naturall y enough the most solemn seven days in all the year were not marked by any show of social frivolity, but rather sedate interchanges of that nature. The city has indeed been in sackcloth and ashes. Other influences as well have had their effect in toning down the ardor of those who are socially inclined, such as Easter dress preparations, usual spring renovating and preparations for moving about town and into the suburbs. Starting with the observance of Palm Sunday in the episcopal and catholic churches the week has been one of religious duties, culminating in the holiest days of all the 365, yesterday. To morrow is a day of christian rejoicing, made much more so by the advent of spring, and things springlike. Then follows the season of suspended restrictions in which the social side of life in St. John will be more seen than for months. The theatre opens on Monday and numerous little affairs full of promised pleasantness and, further off the unfailing crop of June weddings.

Speaking of weddings it is rumored, for that phrase has been taken off the shelf again, that a Princess street physician. not a young man by any means, will very soon lead to Hyman's altar, a Halifax lady and that a European trip, including the Paris show, will consume their honeymoon period.

It is understood Dr. and Mrs. W. W. White will visit the Paris Exposition, leaving in about two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Doherty of Orange street pleasantly entertained a few of her friends at whist on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Vanwart of Charlotte street leave for England en route to Paris, by the Elder-Dempster boat Lucitania next Thursday. Germany and Italy will be included in their European trip.

Mr. Alfred Pound of P. S. McNutt & Co. it is understood, is going to take a British Columbian trip in early May, a sort of prospecting visit. Mrs. Pound will remain here.

Mr. Walter Goddard has been a victim of la grippe for the past week at his grandfather's home Mr. M. C. Barbour's, Richmond street.

Mrs. Jas. Stanton has returned home from Portland, Me. where she was in attendance at the funeral of her uncle, Mr. McCutcheon.

Dr. Bayard, of Germain street, Canada's grand old man of medicine, was laid aside from his active duties last week, through indisposition.

Mrs. E. Titus of Brussels street, one of St. John's oldest and most respected residents is quite ill. Mrs Titus is in her 91st year and the oldest member of Brussels street Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mason of Douglas Avenue. entertained Mr. Mason's fellow employes of Haley's woodworking establishment on Thursday evening, in honor of Mr. Mason's recent marriage.

The Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions to meet in New York on the 21st of this month and to continue for ten days will, no doubt, be among the most notable missionary gatherings ever held. Delegates from all parts of the world are expected to be present, and a large number of topics of the deepest interest in connection with missionary and evangelistic work will be discussed by men distinguished for their great ability and life long devce tion in the cause of missions. The uplifting influuence, spiritually and intellectually, of the meet ings should be very great. Among Baptists in these Provinces who are expecting to attend the Conference are Rev. J. W. Manning and Mrs. Manning of St. John, Rev. H. A. Lavers of St. George, and Rev. H. R. Hatch of Wolfville, also Mr. and Mrs. Archibald returned missioniaries from India.

Captain Charles Taylor of Sheffield, Sunbury, Co., is in town again looking after the getting ready of his boat "David Weston" of the Star Line for the summer's work. Captain Taylor is one of the young est masters of any steam passenger craft running out of or into this port and with the travelling pub lic is ever obliging and painstaking. Mr. Arthur Ganong, brother of W. B. Ganong of the "Cedars" has been appointed steward of the "Weston" which ensures the peace of mind of those passengers who may pose as epicures.

The Buds of Promise of the Congregational church, held a pretty little tea and fancy sale on Tuesday evening, which was well patronized. The Buds are only little bits of tots, but they carried their fete out with assurance worthy of their elders. Of course the little ones were assisted at the sale tables, but throughout the evening the Buds were the moving spirits. The tables were in charge of the following persons:

Tea-Table-Mrs. Creighton, Mrs. G. A. Smith, Mrs. H. P. Kerr. Miss Emma Harrison, Miss Elliott, Miss Hackett, Miss Creighton, Miss Olive Fowler, Miss Lizzie Carney.

Fancy Table-Mrs. Gordon, Olive Flewelling, Greta Fowler.

Art Table-Mrs. Otto Reinecke Jennie Holmes. Children's Table-Miss Philips, assisted by Nettie Bridges, Dorothy Creighton, Winnie Cunningham, Gertrude Philips, Maud Smith, Gratia

Heath, Nana Williams, Marion Estabrooks. Ice Cream Table-Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Heath, Bertie Hackett, Mabel Hatfield.

A short programme was rendered as follows: Chorus and drill, "The Little fairies" Maude am ith Dorothy Creighton, Winnie Cunningham, Gratia Earle Heath, Nana Williams, Marion Estabrooks, Recitation-"Dolley's Apron," Marion Estabrooks. Recitation-"When Birdie Goes to Sleep " Nanna Williams.

Phonograph selections. Miss Beard left on Wednesday for a trip to New York. Captain Robertson, and Mrs. Robertson, who have been spending some weeks here, returned to their home in Yarmouth on Thursday.

Miss Barnes of "Brookside". Titusville, is the ruest of her aunt Mrs. C. T. Barnes, Coburg St. Mr. A. Stevens of Kentville, N. S. spent Sunday with friends here.

The exodus to suburban parts will soon commence, in fact it has already begun. On Saturday last Mr. Wetmore of M. R. & A.'s office moved his family to their pretty little home at Riverside on the I. C. R. Dr. and Mrs. Gorham of Coburg Street will occupy half of Mr. Wetmore's cottage during the summer.

C. J. Milligan and family of 150 Leinster street intend resuming their residence at their pretty ome, "Beauseant" Torryburn in about three weeks. The influx into Westfield commences in a week or so.

Miss Mamie Russell of Chatham, is staying with Mrs. L. B. Knight for an extended visit. Miss Russell has recently graduated from the General Public hospital nursing staff.

Mr. Jeremiah Clark of Bay View, P. E. I., was n town last Sunday en route to Boston and Guelph Ont. Mr. Clark is one of the bright young men of P. E. I., and already has shown a literary intellect, being the author of several books and poems.

Messrs. Clifford Hubbard and I sslie Baxker of Canning, N. S., who had been attending Kerr's Business College went home on Wednesday. Mr. Hubbard has finished his business tuition, but Mr. Baxter returns in a week or so. Both young men have made many friends during their stay in St.

William H. and Jack Clawson, sons of Mr. Joshus Clawson of King street (east) are home from the University at Fredericton for the Easter vacation. Mr. Geo. McSorley, city editor of the Gazette was confined to his home in West End during the early week with la grippe. Among the Currie Business University student who have gone home for the Easter holidays are: Miss Lottie Sherwood of Upham, N. B.; C. R. Rev. Mr. Goucher had the misfortune to be thrown from a team one day last week. He was driving Mr. G. W. Ganong's little chestnut horse down Marks street and when turning into Water street, the horse started somewhat quickly and struck the wagon against a tree in front of Miss Atherton's throwing Mr. Goucher out and quite badly breaking the wagon. The horse was stopped before it had gone far' Mr. Goucher escaped with only a shaking up.

There was no meeting of the Popular whist club

Mr. Wilson Baxter an old and much respected citizen of Milltown, died at his come on Wednesday last. The funeral took place on Saturday and was attended by the orangemen in a body.

It is rumored that an axe factory is soon to be started at the old Broad axe factory site. Mr. Harry Broad, Mr. John Wilson and a Montreal capitalist are the movers in reviving this industry. It is hoped they will meet with success.

George E. Sands is home for a few days. Mr. Sands has been in St. John for some weeks in the interest of the Imperial Manufacturing Company. The Knights of Pythias are making every possible preparation for their ball in St. Croix hall on Mon-music.

The Civic League does not seem to be meeting with the success which its promoters anticipated . A meeting was held in Temperance hall last Friday evening at which about a dozen citizens attended. Speeches were made by Mr. Ashley St. Clair and Rev. Mr. Rice of Calais. Unless the citizen8 become generally interested in this new movement it is safe to predict that success will be lacking. The interest evinced so | far is certainly not encouraging to the promoters. Although liquor is sold quite freely in town at present there are very few disturbances on the streets and an attempted reform unless thoroughly successful may prove to be a detriment.

VERSES OF YESTERDAY AND TODAY

Britain the Mighty.

Hark to that shout again, Flung back from kop to fen; Tyranny trembles. Ever she sends more men, Britain the mighty!

Terror of criminals. Under our fiag they fall, They who obey her call, Sons of the Empire. True soldiers one and all. Britain the mighty!

Mistress of armies. Friends bleeding, foeman dead, Bravely we forge ahead, Letting the light in. Dark is the path we tread, Britain the mighty!

Champion of freedom. Great as thou art in war, Peace proves the mightier. True colonizer. Queen of both sea and shore,

Britain the mighty! Mother of nations. When hate's subsiding blast Blows the last war-cloud past, True fostermother;

Our Great Britain. JEREMIAH S. CLARK. Kirklawn, Bay View, March 30, '00.

Rule as thou ever hast,

Britain the mighty!

Ballad of the Alarm Clock. I bought a clock not long ago, To give me timely warning
That I must rise in time to go
To business in the morning.

Yet now I loathe its pallid face, Set round with inky numbers, And hate the gong upon its case, That shatters my sweet slumbers.

A rounded horror, nickled bright!
I'd sooner take a licking
Than waken in the dead of night
And hear the thing a-ticking.

Now hushed to a low, scarce heard beat, Now loud as drums in battle; Now deathly slow and then so fleet It makes the whole case rattle.

I wrap it in a coverlet
And in my closet stow it;
Then try my best to sleep—and yet
It's ticking, and I know it.

Worn out at length, my eyelids close;
Then, with a sudden clanging,
And jingle-jangle, off it goes,
A-gurgling and a-whanging. Innocuous Idiocy in Verse.

There was an artless artist, and He had wheels in his head; "I have no horseless carriage He sent a wireless telegram, And bought a chainless wheel; But, though a reckless character, His wreck I must reveal.

The bicycle they sent him was
A chainless, brakeless make,
But straightway as he mounted it
That wheel began to break.
His injuries were endless,
And though life's but a span,
He's breathing still, though breathless,
For he is a deathless man.

To this poem, though 'tis senseless,
I trust you'll give a place;
Then sure, you'll be subscriberless.

CROUP is the most deadly of all diseases of children. It gives very little time in which to seek remedies. A little tiredness—a cough feverishness-stiffled coughing

-weakened voice -feeble pulse - delirium -convulsions - and even at this critical period LIFE IS SAVED if this wonderful balsam is administered. It should be always on hand and given at the first symptom but it will nearly perform miracles whenever used.
