PROGRESS, SATURDAY, APRIL 21 1900

Easter has come and gone, civic elections have been fought out once again, townsfolk have left for Paris, the automobile has made its bow to the St. John public and in a general way the people have been shaken up, as it were. Events of a social nature may be expected to follow in rapid succession.

Perhaps some will wonder what right a reference to the horseless carriage has in the columns devoted to the social doings of the townspeople, but PROGRESS learns that before the season is very far advanced the self-propelling vehicle will be quite a factor in the ranks of the wealthier families in St. John and will cut a figure in smart society. Of course the automobile is yet very new here and persons are made exceeding conspicuons by riding in them, but with the wearing off of this novelty they wil be used quite freely. No orders have actually been booked for them, but a junior member of a leading dry goods firm, a prominent bachelor physician having his office on Waterloo street a Germain street medio, a King street (east) society lady, a Germain street ditto and two well known young citizens are only waiting each other to "break the ice" and they will follow suit and order their steam carriages.

And the elections. His Worship Mayor Sears offered himself the unfortunate "once too often" and Dr. Daniel, an erstwhile rival bounced into the Chief Magistracy with a handsome major. ity. St. John people undoubtedly feel greatly gratified to know that Mayor Sears has so worthy a successor, a man of ster ling worth and integrity, a professional man and brainy. During the two years that Mayor Sears occupied the chief's seat at our Council board he won the support of the sensible public by his plain, straightforward acting and speaking, and his unfailing sociability. Nothing seemed a bother to His Worship and he was ever willing to lend his patronoge to worthy objects. Dr. Daniel has his goods cut out for him to surpass the present Mayor in this regard. Ald. Allen is left behind and Col. J. R. Armstrong, a society man succeeded him. J. B. M. Baxter is back again in the Council and Thos, Hilyard is North End's latest and most acceptable contribution. Mayoralty house is now to be found at No. 148 Princess street, a most hospitable home, where Mrs. Daniel has ever proved herself a delightful hostess. Mrs. Daniel, as most city folks know, is a highly accomplished musician. The Elder-Dempster steamer" Lusitania" left Sand Point on Wednesday with a party of St. John folk aboard bound for Paris and the great world's fair. They were Dr. and Mrs. W. W. White, Miss Edith Hannington, daughter of Justice Hannington, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Vanwart. Mr. Vanwart being of the firm of Vanwart Bros. grocers. The steamer swung from her berth and proceeded out the harbor in a drizzling rain, which considerably dampened the enthusiasm of the voyaguers, as well as those who were at the dock to bid them good-bye. But after the "Lusitania" left Hali, fax Thursday night the weather was delightfully clear and bright with prospects of a pleasant trip across. On Thursday morning Dr. Thomas Walker and his daughter. Miss Alice Walker took the American train for Beston, where they will stay until next Wednesday, on that day taking passage aboard the Dominion Line steamer New England for Liverpool. After a stay of three months in England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and France the doctor and his daughter will return. Of course the World's fair is the chief attraction. On Wednesday evening the Carleton Vocal society rendered another of their concerts to a delighted audience. The evening was truly most enjoyable, each number being of especial merit, combining in making the programme a highly artistic success.

Miss Bessie Wet nore, and both these ladies sang well. Mrs. Doherty in response to a well merited encore, sang "Comin' thro' the Rye," admirably. Miss Wetmore gave two selections by Chaminade entitled "Colette" and "Madrigal," and this young lad s's sweet, absolutely true voice but confirmed the inpression already established that she is John. rapidly becoming one of our foremost singers. Mr. J. N. Sutherland sang in fine s.yle "The March of the Cameron Men," responding to an encore with the old ballad "A Governess Wanted." Later this gentleman gave "The Gallants of England" in his own inimitable style. Mr. J. A. Kelly sang "Greeting" as he only among local vocalists can sing it and in response to an insistive encore, went into comedy and gave "The Bowld Sojer Boy." Miss Baillie's readings were well given and were a very attractive feature of the programme. Mr. Frank Whetsel's banjo playing was a rare treat. He was complimented with double and triple encores, and his playing of "My old Kentucky Home" will long dwell in the memories of all who were fortunate enough to hear it. Mr. Ford was conductor, Miss Bessie Knight, accompanist. Miss Florence Barnes of "Norton Villa" Hampton, spent Easter here the guest of her brother Mr. J. Pope Barnes, Orange street.
