J. J. Burke, purser of the steamer Erna, who is in the city is an amateur athlete who has made good showing on the track. He is son of J. W. Burke, Murdoch's nephew's New York manager, well known here, and this is his first visit to Halifax. While at St. John he agreed to race a local man at five miles, giving away three-fourths of a mile handicap, on Dominion Day. Mr. Burke says he once raced at Boston and gave 1 1/2 miles handicap in eight miles. He was at Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., with Tommy Conneff, who brought him out as a runner, and has also trained with Ernie Herjberg, and been under Mike Murphy's charge. He has beaten Conneff, Orton and other fast runners and has lots of medals and trophies. Though English born, Mr. Burke was through the Cuban war, having volunteered at Jersey, and he has a wound in one leg as a souvenir. He does not know whether or not he will remain on the Erna. The tidings spread rapidly over the community Sunday morning of the death of Hon. H. H. Fuller during the previous night, about 11.30. The general expression mingled with the great regret was that "it must have been very sudden." Subsequently it was learned that Mr. Fuller had been last Monday fishing in company with Dr. Farrell, at East River; that he had contracted a cold from which he suffered but did not remain in the house until Friday and on Saturday fatal symptoms of pneumonia developed.

Mr. Fuller was nearly 72 years old. He was born in 1828, his father, who was a native of Halifax, being deputy-provost-marshal of Cape Breton, at that time a separate Province; his mother was also a native of Halifax of Irish parentage. After receiving a good English education, partly in this city he entered the hardware establishment of James Wallace & Co., and subsequently became a partner in the firm of E. Albro & Co., then commenced business for himself on the premises at the foot of Duke street where he has ever since been located, with Mr. W. C. Brine as a partner for the past few years.

There is no policeman to enforce the laws of health and to call "stop!"

When you are in danger from disease. But Nature has her own danger signals. When pain shoots like a lightning flash along the nerves, when the heart beats feebly or irregularly, when there is unnatural fullness after eating, sour risings, headache, coated tongue or irritable temper, then Nature is plucking you by the sleeve and calling "stop!" To neglect these warnings is dangerous. Derangement of the stomach and its allied organs is but the beginning of trouble for the whole body.

As a complete cure for disease of the stomach and the organs of digestion and nutrition Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery stands without an equal. It purifies the blood, cleanses the system of poisonous accumulations, nourishes the starved nerves and builds up the entire body, blood and bone, muscle and nerve. "It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pelle's' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. M. Palmer, of Peede, Kaufman Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried patent medicine; got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well, am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything."

Mr. H. N. Shaw, B. A. a graduate of Acadia '91 so well known as instructor in elocution and vocal music, is to give an evening's recital in College Hall, Saturday evening, June 2nd. As Mr. Shaw remains in Wolfville for ten days he has made arrangements to accept a limited number of pupils for that length of time. Since leaving Wolfville Mr. Shaw has studied extensively in Europe, giving special attention to voice training for singing and public speaking.

The closing exercises of Acadia University, Wolfville, will take place June 3 to 6, and promise to be of considerable interest. Rev. K. R. Boyce Tupper D. With feelings of regret we announce the death of Mr. Edward Roland Kilcup, at Fairfield, on Friday morning of last week. For two months he had been ill, and it was hoped he would be able to be about again, but a second hemorrhage into the brain on Thursday proved more serious and death ensued early the next morning. Mr. Kilcup was married May 24, 1883, to Fanny, daughter of the late Wm. Thompson, Brooklyn. He was forty years of age, ten years ago was Steward at King's College, in which position he was deservedly popular.

The Women's Missionary Aid Society of the Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Payne, Albert St., where a very pleasant afternoon was spent on Thursday last. present, and greatly enjoyed this talented lady's splendid outline of the proceedings.

Rev. Avery A. Shaw preached his last sermon for the present to an immense congregation on Sunday evening in the Baptist Church. His sermon was not altogether a farewell. After the service, and as the congregation were leaving, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw had a farewell shake of the hand with many as they passed out. On Monday morning they left here to spend a few days at Berwick, followed by the good wishes of very many, of all denominations, in which the editor and his staff most cordially join. A large number were at the station to say "Good-Bye" to the worthy pastor and his excellent lady.

On Wednesday morning last Mr. Oscar J. Kirkpatrick was quietly married to Miss Bessie O'Brien Richardson, at the home of Mr. Hugh Richardson, by the Rev. J. A. Mosher, in the absence of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick were the recipients of many nice wedding gifts, including silver, glass and bric-a-brac. The bride's traveling dress was a very pretty one of mottled green and grey heavy cloth, with hat of green and blue of the new pastel shades. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick left in the early express, en route to Shubenacadie, to visit the groom's relatives. They returned here this week. The bride was at home to her friends on the 29th at her father's home. Mr. Kirkpatrick was formerly one of our enterprising young merchants, but recently sold out his interests with a view of going West and will leave next month. The bride is a bright amiable young lady, and the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick both here and elsewhere join in extending congratulations and best wishes for a happy future.

Drink Only Good Tea.

There's a reason for it. Cheap teas are not only flavorless, and require more tea to the cup to produce any taste, but moreover, are often artificially colored and flavored, and are sometimes most dangerous. A branded tea like Letley's Elephant Brand is safest, as its packers's business reputation is staked on its purity.
