THINGS OF VALUE.

'And why did you leave your last place?'

'Cook as me had a fallin out, mem.'

'I don't see why you should leave for a little thing like that.'

'But we fell out o' th' third story window, mem.'

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, which obtainable in a sound undiluted state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailties of the system are consolidated and strengthened by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of courage in life is a disease, and, by tranquillizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northrup & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists' this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

Freshie—Notice how the professor has taken to quoting slang once in awhile. I don't think that dignified.

Senior—If your powers of observation were a little better cultivated, you would also have noticed that he always quotes it wrong.—Indianapolis Press.

PREVENT DISORDER.—At the first symptoms of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be restored to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets, taken before going to bed, followed by dose of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

The match trust has several factories in Europe and has now absorbed an important establishment in South America.

DO NOT DELAY.—When, through debilitated digestive organs, poison finds its way into the blood, the prime consideration is to get the poison out as rapidly and as thoroughly as possible. Delay may mean disaster. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a most valuable and effective medicine to assail the intruder with. They never fail. They go at once to the seat of the trouble and work a permanent cure.

'I shall be glad when I get big enough to wash my own face,' muttered Johnny after his mamma had got through with him, 'then I won't wash it.'

Sore Feet.—Mrs. E. J. Neill, New Armagh, P. Q., writes: 'For nearly six months I was troubled with burning aches and pains in my feet to such an extent that I could not sleep at night, and as my feet were badly swollen I could not wear my boots or walk. At last I got a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil—and resolved to try it and to my astonishment I got almost instant relief, and the one bottle accomplished a perfect cure.'

'I believe your friend, the apothecary, takes a dram occasionally.'

'Oh, yes. I believe he has no scruples against it.'

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that 'Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup' will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been equaled. It is a pure, sweet, free and easy expectorant, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal.

Billings—You are the last man to play the races. What do you know about horseflesh, anyway?

Stullion—I ought to know a good deal about it. I was in the army and lived on salt horse for months at a time.

Kind Hearted.

Ashman: 'Any old bottles for sale?'

Master: 'Sorry, but I sent them all away today.'

Valet: 'Excuse me sir, but he's such a poor devil, couldn't we drink up a couple for him?'
