Asthma Gasps.

Despairing Victims of Asthma
Find New Hope and Thorough Cure in
Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Too many asthma sufferers give up their search for cure, believing that their particular case is beyond the control of scientific treatment.

It is unnecessary to describe the miseries of the asthma victim, with livid face and staring eyes, frantically gasping for breath. What we would do is to point all such to a new hope in Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the one great remedy which has proven its efficiency not only as a prompt relief, but also as a thorough cure for asthma.

The gratitude of scores and hundreds of cured ones is expressed in just such words as the following from Mrs. George Budden, Putnamville, Ont.:

Mrs. George Budden, Putnamville, Ont., says: "I feel it my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. As I had the asthma very bad; could get nothing to do me good. A friend of mine persuaded me to try this remedy, as he had tried it and it proved successful. I tried it and it cured me. I am thankful today to say I am a well woman through the use of this remedy. I keep it in the house all the time, and would not be without it."

It is impossible to imagine a better treatment for asthma than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It soothes the excited nerves, clears the bronchial tubes, gives prompt relief to the frightful spasms and, when used regularly, thoroughly and permanently cures asthma. 25 cents a large bottle at all dealers, or Edmansons, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THINGS OF VALUE.

"I wonder," said the absent-minded professor, "what I did with that postage-stamp!"

"You had it at your tongue's end a moment ago," replied his wife.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other.

We have, however, in Quinine Wine, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the weakest systems are led into confidence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquillizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

The rain falls not alike upon
The just and the other fellow;
And the reason of it is because
The unjust has the umbrella.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is prepared from the purest ingredients and is thoroughly reliable for the cure of cholera, dysentery, diarrhoea, griping pains and summer complaints. It has been used successfully by medical practitioners for a number of years with gratifying results. If suffering from any summer complaint it is just the medicine that will cure you. Try a bottle. It sells for 25 cents.

He—Did you enjoy the matinee, dear?
She—Very much. I sat next to Mr. Gadabout, whom I hadn't seen for years. We had a nice long chat.

Had La Grippe.—Mr. A. Nickerson, Farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

Tailor—"I brought you this suit six months ago, and you haven't paid me a cent." Harduppe—"But it didn't suit; it was damaged." Tailor—"I'm afraid I shall have to bring another suit for damages."

A PLEASANT MEDICINE.—There are some pills which have no other purpose evidently than to get rid of the internal disturbances in the patient, adding to his troubles and perplexities rather than diminishing them. One might as well swallow some corrosive material. Parke's Vegetable Pills are not this disagreeable and injurious property. They are easy to take, are not unpleasant to the taste, and their action is mild and gentle. Trial of them will prove this. They offer peace to the dyspeptic.

Mrs. B.—Are their domestic relations satisfactory?
I. B.—I should think they ought to be. They have had the same servant girl for ten years.

Stocks—Did you propose to Miss Richleigh today?
Booby—Yes. I have the refusal of her.

"I don't know what Smith does with his money." "No." "No, I don't. Yesterday he was short, and he's short again today." "Did he want to borrow from you?" "No, hang it. I wanted to borrow from him."

Great Things From Little Causes Grow.—It takes very little to derange the stomach. The cause may be slight, a cold, something eaten or drunk, anxiety, worry, or some other simple cause, but precautions be not taken, this simple cause may have most serious consequences. Many a chronically debilitated constitution to-day owes its structure to simple cause, not dealt with in time. Keep the digestive apparatus in a healthy condition and all will be well. Parke's Vegetable Pills are better than any other for the purpose.

A LITTLE COLD LET RUN.

A little tickling in the throat—now and then a dry, hacking cough—"not bad enough to bother about you say."

But every hack makes a breach in the system, strains the lungs and prepares the way for more serious trouble.

'Twould be wise for you to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup now, before the lungs become permanently affected.

It is the most certain and satisfactory remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat and Whooping Cough.

Mrs. Geo. F. Foster, Lansdowne, N.B., has this to say: "I was taken suddenly with a cold which settled on my lungs. I had a terrible cough and it gave me great alarm. All the remedies I tried seemed of no use."

I then started taking Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which cured me so promptly that it was a pleasant surprise. I shall always keep it in the house during the winter season."

New York Millionaires.

Only a few people reading advertisements of bankers and brokers, saying that money could be made through speculation, realize that the richest men in America have commenced life in a humble way and have made their fortune through stock exchange speculations.

Men like Jay Gould who worked as a dry goods clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his twentieth year, and commenced to operate with his small savings of $200.00 in Wall Street left at his death 70 millions of dollars; Russell Sage who worked as a grocery boy at $4.00 per week and whose present wealth is estimated at 100 millions of dollars is still operating the market, although 80 years of age, and so are thousands of others who are enjoying all the luxuries life can offer, which is due to their success in speculations.

To the shrewd speculator the same opportunities are open to-day as to others in the past. The small capital which can be bought and sold is 10 shares on 3% margin, making $30 dollars.

Anybody interested as to how speculations are conducted can get information and market letter free of charge upon application by letter to,
