ITCHING SKIN.

In any Form, Whether Eczema, Salt Rheum or Piles Is Relieved at once and Permanently Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

One of the strongest endorsements any remedy can have is its adoption by the medical profession as the standard treatment for the ills for which it is recommended. Such is the position of Dr. Chase's Ointment today.

DOCTORS USE IT.

Before the introduction of Dr. Chase's Ointment doctors admitted that they could not cure Eczema and Salt Rheum, and usually resorted to the surgical operation for piles. Now they use Dr. Chase's Ointment and know of no such thing as failure.

Of course they don't always tell their patients what they are using, nor do they give the treatment in the original package; but nevertheless they continually order it from their shelves for use in their practice and recognize it as the only absolute cure for piles and itching skin diseases.

DOCTORS ENDORSE IT.

Canadian doctors are no less enthusiastic than their American brethren in the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but on account of the strict laws of the Dominion, do not care to have their names mentioned in public print. If you are in doubt regarding the wonderful virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment ask your family physician. He knows its record in the past and will endorse it in the strongest terms.

Dr. C. M. Harb, New York, writes: "No physician now refuses to acknowledge the claims of such remedies as Dr. Chase's Ointment which proves its virtue by curing where other means have failed."

"We know that Dr. Chase's Ointment meets all the requisitions of the highest standard of worth, and that it is held in high esteem wherever used, and consequently we endorse it to every reader."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure any case of piles. 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for throat and lung troubles, Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. Each 25 cts. at all dealers.

THINGS OF VALUE.

He—"If there is anything a woman enjoys it is being a martyr." She—"And how willing some men are to help her to enjoy herself that way."

Nearly all infans are more or less subject to diarrhoea and such complaints while teething, and as this period of their lives is the most critical, mothers should not be without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Keillogg's Dysentery Cordial. This medicine is a specific for such complaints and is highly spoken of by those who have used it. The proprietors claim it will cure any case of cholera or summer complaint.

"This age demands men who have convictions," shouted the impassioned orator. "Where shall we find them?" "In prison," replied a man in the gallery.

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator deranges worms, and gives rest to the sufferer. It only costs 25 cents to try it and be convinced.

Disappointed guest—"I thought you said here was an extensive hotel from your hotel?" asked the guest. "I can't see well enough without them to look now."

A lady writes: "I was enabled to remove the corns, root and branch, by the use of Holloway's Corn Cure." Others who have tried it have the same experience.

The grasshopper has, according to its size, one of the most and fiercest times the kicking power of an average man. It must be a warm time for the young grasshopper who goes escorting and finds the old man at home.

The Horse—nobles of the brute creation—when suffering from a cut, abrasion, or sore, derives as much benefit as its master in a like predicament, from the soothing action of Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil. Lameness, swelling of the neck, stiffness of the joints, throat and lungs, are relieved by it.

"This lace that I am wearing to-night," said Mrs. Van Benschoten to Mrs. Smith, "is something that belonged to my great-grandmother." "Oh, well, returned Mrs. Smith, reassuringly, "I shouldn't feel bad, even if it is old. It looks just as good as new, I'm sure."

A CLEAR, HEALTHY SKIN—Eruptions of the skin and the blotches which blight its beauty are the result of impure blood caused by unhealthy action of the Liver and Kidneys. In correcting this unhealthy action and restoring the organs to their normal condition, Parmentier's Vegetable Pills will at the same time cleanse the blood, and the blotches and eruptions will disappear without leaving any trace.

Twitlerly (to Suitlerly, reading novel)—"And what becomes of the hero?" Suitlerly—"I don't know his final fate, but, on page two hundred and five, it looks as if the heroine had him tread." At any rate, the author states that "at her glance he stood rooted to the spot."

BE THERE A WILL, WISDOM POINTS THE WAY.—The sick man pines for relief, but his disk is sending for the doctor, which means bottles of drugs and a long confinement. He has not the resolution to load his stomach with compounds which smelt villainously and taste worse. But if he have the will to deal himself with his ailment, wisdom will direct his attention to Parmentier's Vegetable Pills, which as a specific for indigestion and disorders of the digestive organs, have no equal.

All the world is but a stage, And 'tis a solemn fact That one of gets to be the rage, Who knows not how to act.

What does this mean, Bridget? exclaimed the lady of the house, returning from shopping, the telephone has been taken out?

"Sure, ma'am; the girl over the way is idler messes would like to use it for a little while, and I sent it over to her; but I had a terrible job getting it unscrewed from the wall, ma'am."

"Jimmie," said the joke writer on the prison paper, "when I get out of dis place I'm going to have a period."

"A period!" echoed the horse editor.

"Yes or in other words, a good old spree."

"What did you call it a 'period' for?"

"'Cause it comes after a long sentence."

"The judge wouldn't give the man a divorce just because his wife slept with a rizzor under her pillow."

Why not?

"The judge sent for the rizzor and looked at it. 'Do you base your claim for a divorce on this?' he asked the man. The man said he did. 'Well,' said the judge, 'it's hollow ground.'"

New York Millionaires.

Only a few people reading advertisements of bankers and brokers, saying that money could be made through speculation, realize that the richest men in America have come into life in a humble way and have made their fortune through stock exchange speculations.

Men like Jay Gould who worked as a dry goods clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his twentieth year, and commenced to operate with his small saving of $200.00 in Wall Street left at his death 70 millions of dollars; Russell Sage who worked as a grocery boy at $4.00 per week and whose present wealth is estimated at 100 millions of dollars is still operating the market, although 80 years of age, and so are thousands of others who are enjoying all the luxuries life can offer, which is due to their success in speculations.

To the shrewd speculator the same opportunities are open today as to others in the past. The smallest lot which can be bought and sold is 10 shares on 3/4 margin, making 80 dollars.

Anybody interested as to how speculations are conducted can get information and market letter free of charge upon application by letter to,
