TRURO.

JULY 24.—Mrs A C Page and Miss Cunningham are enjoying an outing in Guysboro. Mrs J E Bigelow and Miss Bigelow entertained a large number of their lady friends, yesterday afternoon in honor of their visitors, Mrs W S Harkins and the Misses Tibbets, in a very pleasant and novel way, to a book tea, each guest wore a unique suggestion of some book, a charming Japa vase was the prize to the lady guessing the most books. Miss Youston and Mrs E Fulton were ties for the prize. The former lady very cleverly represented the Scottish chiefs, by wearing a small card decorated with a tiny bag of oat meal and a miniature bottle of whiskey. Mrs Gulton's card was written over with the word "Adieu", which divided was 'MUCHO' about nothing. Mrs Fulton and Miss Youston agreed to draw for the prize and as a result, the latter lady became the possessor of the handsome vase. The charming tea was dispensed out doors, where the guests remained during the afternoon, enjoying the lawn and the pleasant shade afforded by the trees. The function was an exceedingly pleasant and successful one, and elicited none but very flattering comments. Among those present beside the house party were:— Mrs Davies, Mrs Will Youston, Miss Christie, Mrs Taylor, Mrs Stanfield, Miss Thomas, Mrs Sinclair, Mrs Ford, Mrs Fulton, Mrs J H McKay, Mrs Gordon Crowe, Miss Schurman Miss Snook, Miss Longworth, Miss Watson, Miss Wetmore, Miss Beigh, Miss Flemming, Miss Fraser, Miss Black, Miss Hanson, Mrs Feler, Mrs G H Vernon. Miss Ethel Blanchard is visiting friends in Economy.

Busy.

The importance of encounters for the championship was tully borne in upon the travelling man of business, who thus relates his experience to the Philadelphia Times. When I arrived at Black Rock I inquired at the village tavern for the man of the name of Wharton, who had some land to sell. 'Do you mean old Bill Wharton?' 'Yes.' 'Got land down on Bass River?' 'Yes.' 'Well, he lives about three miles out of town.' 'Can I get a horse?' 'Yes, but it won't do you any good.' 'Is he ill?' 'Not that I know of, but he wouldn't see the President of the United States before next Wednesday. If you can wait seven or eight days, you can get to talk about that land with him.

'Then he has some special business on hand?'

'Special business? Well, I should say so and no mistake. Today him and old Pete Davis sat down to a game of checkers for the championship of the county.'

Phraseologically Correct.

A young fellow who was looking for a clerkship was recently recommended to a city merchant by a Glasgow gentleman. When the two friends met some time after the Glasgow ventured to hope that his recommendation had been productive of good results.

'On the contrary,' replied the merchant. 'You astonish me,' said his friend. 'I thought he would suit you exactly, he was so full of go.'

'And so he was. He has gone off with a thousand pounds of my money.'

'Is it possible? And I thought he was the very man you were looking for.'

'You are right there. He is the very man I am looking for.'

The Asthmatic's Agony.

Wakful nights, suffocating sensations, difficult breathing. Who can describe it? This disease partly nervous, partly congestive, partly the result of microbic irritation is no longer treated by mucous stomach destroying drugs, but by Catarrhozone, that destroys the microbe, relieves congestion and relaxes the nervous irritability that renders breathing so difficult. The medication is carried by the air you breathe to the very seat of the disease, and removes at once the cause. The great discovery is known as Catarrhozone. Its influence upon Asthma is simply marvellous. Catarrhozone prevents as well as cures, and is the only remedy guaranteed to cure. Your money back if it fails. Two sizes at all dealers, 25c. and $1.00.

Penn.—Do you see anything of our old friend Growel? Last time I saw him he said he didn't like New York.

Gothmite—That's so, but I guess he'd rather be in New York than where he is now.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS have found Pain-Killer very useful. There is nothing equal to it in all cases of bowel troubles. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. 25c. and 50c.

Imagination Required.—Bilkins—Your friend Scribbler seems to be always short of funds. If his don't sell, why don't you try him at office work when you need a new man?

Boomer—No use. A man who can't succeed as a novelist has't imagination enough for the real estate business.

THINGS OF VALUE.

GROUPY COUGHS OF CHILDREN.

The tendency to croup is a foe that all parents have to fight. Croup comes in the night, when the help must be right a' hand if it is to be help at all. Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is a blessing to all families where there are children subject to attacks of croup or any mean cough. It has a wonderful reputation for its efficiency and fully deserve it.

You cannot tell what night your child may wake up choking to death with croup. In such a case what do you do? Send for a doctor and wait an hour, or perhaps two hours, while the child is gasping for breath? How much simpler where the true specific for groupy coughs and all throat troubles is right at hand. Indeed, no other way is safe with young children in the house.

Adamson's Cough Balsam is a most delicate medicine for children, relieving the little throats at once. Its action is soothing and certain. It cleans out the phlegm, which produces the groupy condition, and is a safeguard which no mother who knows about it will dispense with. All coughs and inflammation of the throat or bronchial tubes are cured by the Balsam with promptness that surprises. All druggists sell it, 25 cents. The genuine has "F. W. Kinsman & Co." blown in the bottle.

SIGNALS OF DANGER.—Have you lost your appetite? Have you a coated tongue? Have you an unpleasant taste in your mouth? Does your head ache and have you dizziness? If so, your stomach is out of order and you need medicine. But you do not like medicine. He that prefers sickness to medicine must suffer, but under the circumstances the wise man would procure a box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills and speedily get himself in health and strive to keep so.

THE MOST POPULAR ILL.—The pill is the most popular of all forms of medicine, and of pills the most popular are Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, because they do what it is asserted they can do, and are not put forward on any fictitious claims to excellence. They are compact and portable they are easily taken they do not nauseate nor gripe, and they give relief in the most stubborn cases.

Street Car Accident.—Mr. Thomas Sabin, says: "My eleven year old boy had his foot badly injured by being run over by a car on the Street Railway. We at once commenced bathing the foot with Dr. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL when the discoloration and swelling was removed, and in nine cases he could use his foot. We always keep a bottle in the house ready for any emergency."

'Hooray,' said the mamma mosquito, 'here comes a Sunday school picnic.'

'Oh, gee!' exclaimed the little boy mosquito, 'that is just my luck. Here I've gone and filled myself up on an old tramp who was so full of nicotine that it nearly made me sick.'

Corn Lightning

That's Putnam's Corn Extractor. Gives corns tired feeling in about twenty-four hours. They consequently get out as they cannot keep up the pain any longer—makes them weary—it's Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor that does this. Now don't forget. All druggists.

Bizzer—Come and go fishing. Buzzer—How dare you ask me to go fishing on Sunday; besides, I have to play golf.
