red blood. With every dose the blood is strengthened, the quantity increased, and thus the patient is enabled, not only to resist the further spread of disease, but is soon restored to active health and strength.

Do not (finding gouty patient emptying a bottle of wine)—Here, here, my good man, this will never do. That's the cause of all the trouble.

Facious Patient—Well, then, fill your glass, doctor. Now we've found the cause the sooner we get rid of it the better.

The earrings are very pretty, she said, with just a tinge of disappointment, but the stones are very small.

But, my dear, replied the fox man 'til they were any larger they would be all out of proportion to the size of your of your ears.

Friend (over the wine after dinner)—Your wife is certainly a brilliantly handsome woman. I should think you would be jealous of her.

His Host (confidentially)—To tell you the truth, Seymour, I am. I never invite anybody here that a sane woman could possibly take the least fancy to.

EYES SPEAK

Volumes, at times, of a woman's happiness or misery. The dull, sunken eye, with its dark circles almost surely speaks of womanly ill-health, and its attendant suffering.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which undermine the health and mar the beauty of women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free, and so obtain the advice of a specialist upon their disease. All correspondence is strictly private and sacredly confidential.

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight weeks before taking your medicine."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.
