The King of Washing Powders.
It is an old saying, and one well worthy of every one's attention, that, 'Cleanliness is next to Godliness.' A number of years ago a washing powder was put upon the market with a view to making cleanliness more easily attainable than it was. This powder was called Pyle's Pearlina. It is the pioneer of all washing powders, and now, although it has many imitators, there is not one of them that can come within speaking distance of it.
There is always one make in every line of goods that stands head and shoulders above the rest, and in washing powders this make is Pyle's Pearlina. It can be used where soap cannot, and cleans thoroughly wherever used, saving an immense deal of labor. Praising it, however, is not necessary, as the public fully realize its merits, and a grocer who tries to palm off something else as just as good, succeeds only in lowering his reputation for truth telling—The Brooklyn, N. Y. Times.

Unexpected Erudition.
An absent-minded professor of languages dropped into a restaurant one day for a luncheon.
What will you have, sir? asked the waiter.
Fried eggs, replied the professor.
Over? said the waiter meaning of course to ask whether he wanted them cooked on both sides or only one.
Over? echoed the professor, surprised at his apparent familiarity with Latin. Certainly. That is what I ordered. Over galina?

Short Thoughts.
Beauty and good sense seldom go together. We usually let our good sense go first, in order that we may keep our beauty a little longer.
Cleanliness is next to godliness. Otherwise, the average boy is 'next.'
The devil is an ass, but he has some very good people advertising his business.
We all know how unselfish we are when it is a question of our telling people things for their good or of keeping still for our own.

A good story is told of Mr. Jeff, who has just been appointed a judge of the high court. On one occasion, when he was recorder of Shrewsbury, a prisoner who was something of a hypocrite tried at a quarter sessions to melt his heart with tears.
'Have you never been in prison?' asked Mr. Jeff in soothing tones.
'Never, my lord; never,' was the reply.
'Well, don't cry,' the recorder replied, 'that can easily be remedied. I'll send you there now.'

He (just introduced)—What a very homely person that gentleman near the piano is, Mrs. Black. She—Isn't he? That is Mr. Black. How true it is, Mrs. Black that the homely men always get the prettiest wives.

Straight Tip—I hear your engagement with young Gtrox has been broken off said the first fair daughter of Eve.
Well, you are entitled to another hearing, rejoined the fair daughter. No 2, as she held up a graced hand on which a solitaire sparkled. You can see for yourself that I am still in the ring.

It is the Women's Club.
'I move that the subject lie on the table,' says the leader of the opposition.
Our leader at once rises to a point of order.
'It is not good table manners to lie on the table,' says our leader.
We are sustained. For the chair is fortunately a person of genuine refinement.
