

Up has been putting some of the finishing touches on many of his past actions during the week. Tuesday and Wednesday were the days selected for many happy events and quite a large number of persons were made happy.

One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in St. John for some time past was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at St. James Episcopal church when the Rev. A. D. Dewdney united in marriage Mr. Richard Dole of the Bank of New Brunswick, of this city, a son of Dr. W. P. Dole and Miss Nellie Y. daughter of Mr. Samuel T. Vaughan of Lacan town.

Miss Vaughan was attired in plum-colored cloth with velvet trimming and hat of corresponding shades. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Bessie Upham, of Parisboro, N. S. Miss Upham was becomingly dressed in a suit of fawn material and hat of cream chiffon. The bride carried cream roses, the bridesmaid cream carnations. Mr. Gilbert Jordan supported Mr. Dole. After the ceremony a reception and luncheon were held at the residence of the bride's father. The happy couple left later in the day for Boston and New York on their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside on Crown street.

Indian town, particularly the bill leading to the wharves, was gay with British and American flags, Wednesday in honor of the wedding of Miss Florence Brown, only daughter of Mr. Jas. R. Brown, head surveyor for the Port of St. John, and Miss M. Brown a leading dressmaker in Portland, Me. Miss Brown is one of the most popular young ladies in the northern end of the city, and her friends were lavishing in the crowd of good will. The wedding was held about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. R. P. McKim of St. Luke's Episcopal church, officiating. Relatives and immediate friends were the only guests.

Miss Brown locked quene in a traveling suit of blue cloth and white feet. She was unattended. The happy couple will visit the principal American cities before taking up their new home in Portland.

At the residence of her grandfather, Samuel Belyea, Middle street, West End, Tuesday evening Miss Amanda Parker was united in marriage to Dr. E. McLeod by Rev. B. N. Nobles. About fifty of the friends of the young couple were present and sat down to a substantial supper. There were numerous and appropriate presents, as the bride and groom are a most popular young couple, identified with church and other organizations in the West End. They left on Wednesday for a trip to Queens county, and on their return will reside on the City Road.

On Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. B. J. Dibley, Broad street, the Rev. Mr. Dewdney united in the bonds of holy matrimony Miss Annie Louise Northrup and Dr. A. H. Barry, son of Mr. A. W. Barry of 164 Water street, by Rev. C. T. Phillips, of Water street Free Baptist church. Only a few immediate relatives and best relatives were in attendance and the wedding was held later on a three weeks trip to the United States. The young couple were the recipients of many handsome gifts.

There was a quiet wedding at 197 Princess street at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon when Rev. J. O. Freeman, of Dr. Hayes Case and Mrs. George Freeman. Only immediate relatives were present. Dr. and Mrs. Case left in the afternoon on a C. P. R. train for Buffalo. On their return to St. John they will have their residence on Princess street, where Mr. Case will have his office.

Mr. John Wayne, the well-known Haymarket Square preacher, was married to Miss Maudie Dunbar by Rev. F. J. McLeod in the Cathedral Wednesday morning.

Wednesday evening at the residence of David Breen, 238 City Road, his daughter, Miss Annie K. Breen, was united in marriage to Andrew I. Megarry, the well known grocer of City Road. The ceremony, a very quiet one, was performed by the Rev. T. J. DeLaud, of the St. John street church. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Megarry left by train for Moncton.

Rev. Mr. DeLaud officiated at another wedding Wednesday evening. In Exmouth street church at seven o'clock Arthur B. Sprague, electrician, of Worcester, Mass., was united in marriage to Miss Ada Keller, daughter of John Keller.

On Thursday morning at St. James church, Mr. Harry S. Waterbury, eldest son of Mr. David Waterbury of the Customs House, was united in marriage to Miss Thomas of the south End. The wedding which was a very pretty one was attended by a large number, the happy couple being very popular.

At six o'clock Wednesday morning in Holy Trinity church by Rev. J. J. Walsh, Mr. John McMahon and Miss Annie Kelly, daughter of I. C. R. Conductor William Kelly, were united in marriage. The church was filled with the friends of the bride and groom. Miss Stella Kelly, sister of the bride, who is home from her nursing duties in Burwood hospital, Fitchburg, Mass., attended her sister, and Mr. Henry Regan supported the groom.

Early Wednesday morning in St. John Baptist Mission, church, Rev. C. B. Kenrick officiated at the marriage of Mr. E. C. Hoyt, an employee of the Canadian Drug Co. to Miss Eunice K. Short, daughter of Mr. George Short, of Leonard St. Relatives were the only ones present. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt left on the American boat for Boston and New York. They will see some of the international yacht races.

SMOOTH SEWING SILK. Corticelli sewing silk is twisted on automatic machines which stop when a break or knot happens in any one of the hundred strands it is twisted with. It is therefore perfectly smooth. Being smooth it is strong—free from knots or flaws. Better than cotton or linen because it lasts longer, goes further, and won't fade.
