The organ recital in the baptist church on Monday evening was a great success. The selections played by Mrs. Malcolm brought into play the full power of the new organ as well as showed to advantage the clever work of the performer. The vocal duets, "Song of My Soul," and "Come Thou Fount," by Miss Coffin and Mr. Malcolm were rendered in a pleasing way. The solos by Miss Mattie Hindon were a treat indeed.

YARMOUTH.

JAN 7.—The opening of the rink Thursday evening was attended by a large number of skaters and spectators, who enjoyed the excellent ice, pretty decorations and fine music rendered by the band.
A hockey match was played after the general skating.
The team presents a striking appearance in their orange and black uniforms. Everything that the club could do to open the rink at Christmas was done, but the weather obstinately refused to permit it.

marriage with Rev Arthur A. Challenger of St Nevis west Indies. The ceremony was performed by the Rev H. D. Marr. The bride was tastefully attired in a travelling gown of grey broadcloth and was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Winslow.
Mr Ludlow Cornell of Houlton, Maine, ably supported the groom. After a dainty luncheon had been served the happy couple left on the evening train for Amherst, N. S., where they will for the present reside.

This was after the quarrel: "I can never forgive you," he cried; "last night you said I was a lobster."
"But you know," she replied, and her tone was coolly, "you know how dearly I love lobsters."

THINGS OF VALUE.

Daughter—But he is so full of absurd ideals.
Mother—Never mind that. Your father was just the same before I married him.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is liable—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—that would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the feeblest systems are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market.
All druggists sell it.

Mrs Newed—What's your husband's favorisation?
Mrs Benther—Well, usually the one that he was detained downtown by, work.

SEVERE DISORDER—At the first symptoms of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these sainitary pills taken before going to bed, followed by a dose of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

"See here!" exclaimed the shopper, excitedly,
"there's a man just dropped dead in that bargain crush!"

"Be inopportune!" cried the floorwalker. "We have not yet opened our undertaking department."

DO NOT DELAY.—When, through debilitated digestive organs, poison finds its way into the blood, the prime constant endeavor is to get the poison out as rapidly and thoroughly as possible. Delay may mean disaster. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a most valuable and effective medicine to assail the intruder with. They never fail. They go into the seat of the trouble and work a permanent cure.

"I took that Boston girl a dollar box of caramels,"
"Well?"

"She gave me a severe yet, pitying look, and said she couldn't maintain a commendable mental condition on the pernicious habit of eating between meals."

There is danger in neglecting a cold. Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure, followed by a cold which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physician. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, before it was too late, their lives would have been spared. This medicine has no equal for curing coughs, colds and all affections of the throat and lungs.

"Everything which is done has been done before."
"Or, no; when a man has just been done you can't do him over again."

Still Another Triumph.—Mr. Thomas S. Bullen, Sutherland, writes: "For fourteen years I was afflicted with piles; and frequently I was unable to walk or sit, but four years ago I was cured by using DR. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL. I have also been subject to Quinsy for over forty years, but Electric Oil cured it, and it was a permanent cure in both cases, as neither the Pills nor Quinsy have troubled me since."
