A very pretty wedding took place on Thursday last at St. Mark's rectory, performed by Rev N. LeMoine, the interested parties being Charles B. Hills, (electrician at John Starr, Son & Co.'s) son of George F. Hills the Gottingen St., shoe dealer, to Miss Laura Walker, second eldest daughter of Mr Wm. Walker, Lady Hammond road. The groom was attended by his brother, George O Hills and the bride by her sister Lillian. The bride was tastefully attired in a suit of grey trimmed with white and brown satin, and wore a handsome white hat. The bridesmaid was attired in costume similar in color to the bride, and also wore a white hat. After the ceremony the newly married couple were conveyed to North street, where they took the train for Truro, where they will be guests at the Stanley hotel for a few days. A number of the iriends of the happy couple assembled at the station to see them off. Both bride and groom are popular, which was shown by the number of pretty presents received. A beautiful set of carvers was a gift from the employees of Messrs. John Starr, Son & Co. After their return Mr and Mrs Hill will reside at 51 Windsor street, where they will be 'at home' to their friends on May 21 and 22.

ome Placas in Neptune's Domains Where Treasure Ships Went Down.

There is a popular belief that vast wealth lies buried deep between the sand and rocks of our coasts. Ship after ship, laden with ingots and coinage, has struck on the British beaches and gone to pieces during the last 500 years. From time to time hundreds of pounds' worth of gold has been showered on the sea shore and picked up and used ; yet there still remains something like 80,000,000 sterling in gold and silve r under the sea.

When the Joakheer Meester Van de Wall, a Dutch East Indiaman, st. uck the iron bound sea front of the Lizard many years ago, she went to pieces before anything could be done to save her Some fisherman from Penberth Cove, while engaged in fishing up blocks of tin which for med part of the vessel's cargo, found a tin box lying in six fathom of water. Being opened it was found to contain coins to the value of 13,000 pounds. It is said that there are other boxes of gold, silver and and banknotes lying among the rocks and sands where the ship sank.

In 1874 a Spanish galleon went ashore near the Lizard, having on board many thousands of pounds' worth of bar gold and money, which were being carried to London for sale.y during the unsettled state of effairs in Spain. The greater part of this vast wealth still lies aweiting re covery between the rocks, which have, even at low water six feet of water over them.

Some years ago a company sank a shaft through the rock below high water mark to try to recover the riches the sea holds so tight. It was imagined that the waves siter a storm would drive some portion of the buried species into the hole at the bettom of the shaft. Before the work was completed, however, the sea broke in, and the shaft had to be abandoned. Another syndicate soon afterward dragged the bottom of the sea with a Datch galleon, lies awaiting recovery somewhere on the Chesil beach, a long nerrow tor; ae of shingly land near the great convict station of Portland. This Dutch treasure ship was returning from the West Indies laden with precious metal, and when coming up the channel was caught in a gale and driven into Portland Race, where tremendous broken seas rage when there is any wind. Gradually she was carried toward Chesil beach, and it did not take her long to dissolve into matchwood. The entire

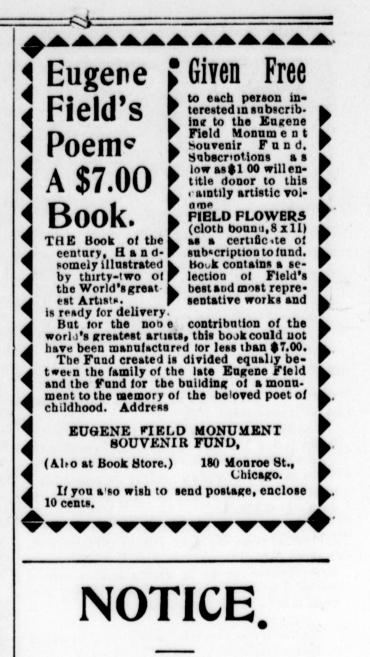

Df. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and perseverance in its use will work wonders for the most hopeless woman. If Mrs. Newton, whose letter is given below, had not persisted in its use, she might never have known the happiness of perfect health. Perhaps the reason for her persistence was because she used "Favorite Prescription" as a "last resort." Physicians had failed. If "Favorite Prescription" could not help there was nothing to hope for. It did help. It always helps and almost always cures. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It imparts strength and elasticity to the organs of maternity and makes the baby's advent practically painless.

"When I consulted you in April, 1899, I was in poor health," writes Mrs. E. H. Newton, of Vanburen, Aroostook Co., Maine. "Had been sick all winter, and, to add to my trouble. was on the road to maternity, which the doctor said would end my days. I was almost discouraged; did not expect any help, but thought the end was only a matter of time, and—oh! my two poor, little. motherless children.

poor, little, motherless children. "It was in this condition that I began the use "It was in this condition that I began the use of your valuable medicine. On receipt of your letter of April 6th my hnsband purchased six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.'" and I used it as you directed. When you wrote me words of en-couragement on April 27th I had received no benefit from the medicine, but determined as a last resort to give it a fair trial. I am now tak-ing the thirteenth and last bottle. I have a last resort to give it a fair that. I am not the ing the thirteenth and last bottle. I have a lovely baby girl three weeks old, that weighed 11½ pounds at birth. My baby and I are enjoy-ing perfect health, thanks to your wonderful medicine, to which I believe I owe my life."

freight of gold and silver went to the bot. tom. Occasionally the fishermen are reminded of its existence by finding a silver ver or gold bar or two on the beach.

The Abergavenno, which was lost in a storm off Weymouth, about the year 1800, had on board several thousand pounds, worth of specie and jewels. In 1806 a syndicate was formed, and, by means of a diving bell, sixty two chests of dollars, to the value of $350,000 were fished up.

Treasure of vast amount is supposed to lie under the sea in the Sarn Badrig, a sunken causeway running miles out to sea from the Welsh coast. The story runs that a French treasure ship, the Bretagne, struck on this death trap of ships, and, caught by one huge wave, hurled completely over, to sink with all hands in deep water.

Another case of total loss, involving four and a half millions in gold coins, was the striking of the Infanta, a noble Spanish galleon, on the rocks of Mizen Head. near Bantry Bay, in November, 1793. The nature of the coast renders investigation difficult, and not a single coin has been brought to the surface. In all probability the treasure will remain in the sea for centuries.

The Czarina, baving $15,000,000 in gold on board, foundered in Filey Brigg, on the Yorkshire coast, and another galleon was lost a few miles farther south, near Bridlington Quay. Thirty thousand pounds have been drawn from the sea's clutches at Bridlington Quay, and the remainder lies awaiting the person who is able to rescue it.

The Gunfleet bank, off the Essex coast is thickly strewn with gold and silver in coin and ingots, for the Vrowe Polder, a Dutch vessel, emptied its cargo of half a million sterling in gold and silver there. About a century ago, a Spanish treasure ship carrying about a million sterling, was caught in storm on Beachy Head, and sank with all on board. The treasure lies in a deep hole over which a strong current runs, making it impossible for divers to descend. Much treasure trove lies off the coast of Ireland. Many Spanish galleons have shed their riches there, and several ships of the Great Armada, with all their wealth on beard, came to grief in the district. Three millions are scattered off a point near Tralee, or rather its equivalent in doubloons. Numerous attempts have been made to recover the treasure and one syndicate actually rescued $200,-
