THINGS OF VALUE.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other.

He said he simply had a cold. And there the whole description ceased. If he were rich, it would be told in six long syllables, at least.

The Coughing and wheezing of persons troubled with bronchitis or the asthma, is extremely harassing to themselves and annoying to others. Dr THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL obviates all this entirely, safely and speedily, and is a benign remedy for lameness, sores, injuries, piles, kidney and spinal troubles.

'Say, my friend, in describing that house of yours in the suburbs you say it is contiguous to the rail way station.' 'Eh! Did the types make it contiguous? I meant contiguous of course.'

HARD RACKING COUGHS.

Barring accidents, the person who gets along with the least amount of cough will live the longest. Of course, the right time to attack a cough is at the commencement, when it is a simple thing for the right treatment to drive the cough quickly away.

Mr and Mrs Levi Elms, of 100 Lebanon St., Melrose, Mass, are receiving congratulations from their many friends on the arrival of a little son.

of the offer a householder, name Beahan, was called away for the night, and to give Mrs. Beaman some sense of security, he borrowed huge St. Bernard dog from his neighbor, Eggby, gave orders that the dog was to sleep in the sitting room, and departed.

That night Mrs. Beahan was awakened by a terrible uproar. Rushing into the sitting room, she found that the St. Bernard had pinned to the floor a masked man. Assistance was hastily summoned and the intruder was secured and marched off to jail, which was in the basement of Cyrus Horablower's windmill.

The village was all excitement. The prisoner was arraigned before the important little justice, and remanded for examination.

In the meantime Mr. Beahan returned, and lost no time in applying for the reward offered by the richest citizen.

It was paid. No sooner had this been done than the Eggbys arose in indignation, and after asking with fine scorn whose dog had captured the thief, demanded the reward for themselves.

The town was immediately split into two factions, the Beahanites and the Eggbyites. Feeling ran high. At last a civil action was begun by the Eggbys for the recovery of the reward.

Papers were promptly served and the action called. Not more than three days had elapsed while these stirring events were taking place.

When the jurors had been drawn and the crowded courtroom was settling itself to listen to the opening remarks of the plaintiff's counsel, the constable, William Henry Sikes, burst into the room, and without even taking off his woolen cap gasped out:

'May it please the court, the prisoner's got away!'

One on Him.

Reggy—Bah Jove! I feel offended at Miss Wose.

Freddy—What now, deah boy?

Reggy—Why, as I entered thaw door I heard her say, 'Here is where thaw joke comes in.'
