On Wednesday evening Mr and Mrs Capt. Johnston of St James street entertained about fifty of their friends who called to congratulate them on the anniversary of their marriage. The evening was very pleasantly spent with music and games. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, who in her able manner left nothing undone for the comfort of her guests.

Another enjoyable event of Wednesday evening was the sleigh drive given by Mr. Pearl Jordan to the members of his Sunday School class, in connection with the Victoria street Baptist church. The young people were driven out on a short distance from the city, and returning were entertained at Mr Jordan's residence, where a short but interesting musical programme was carried out. The programme including selections from the phonograph and vocal and instrumental numbers.

- Those who accepted Mr Jordan's hospitality were: Miss Della Smith, Miss Lottie Holder, Miss Florrie Watters, Miss Iza Mabece, Miss Edna Nobles, Miss Julia Ricker, Miss Mabel Holder, Miss Myrtle McBeath, Miss Ida Williams, Miss Ethel Spragus, Miss Lulu Cody, Mr Fenton Kierstead

One very pleasant social event of the week was the dance given by Misses Minnie and Katie McCann of the North end on Wednesday evening. As arrangements had all been completed the affair could not very well be postponed. A large number of invitations had been issued and with a few exceptions those privileged were in attendance. Dancing was the principal pastime of the evening, though games and amusements of all kinds were provided for the entertainment of the guests. A feature of the evening was the two leap year or twentieth century dances which caused much amusement and forcibly illustrated how the young ladies in this new era may manage bashful or reluctant partners. About midnight refreshments were served and dancing resumed for some time, the party breaking up about 2.30 a.m.

The Y M A of Brussels street Baptist church gave a very pleasant entertainment on Monday evening. A small admission fee was charged, the proceeds to go into the Association amusement fund. The programme was an excellent one and included phonograph selections; solo by Prof Titus; reading, Miss Blanche; Banjo duo, Messrs Davidson and Holder; reading Miss Codner; solo, Miss Titus; reading Miss Vaughan; piano solo, Mrs George Dishart; reading, Mr George Price. Mr F L Tufts, who is president of the Association spoke briefly on the aim of the Y M A and their acceptance of contributions in the way of games, literature, physical apparatus etc. At the close of the concert the ladies and gentlemen who took part were tendered a reception in the Y. M. A. rooms. Refreshments were served and a pleasant hour or two was spent.

GREENWICH.

A very pretty wedding took place in the Methodist church at Brown's Flats on Wednesday evening, 16th, when Miss Maggie Coryrea Smith, eldest daughter of Mr John S Smith and Mr Robert Sheildric of Kingston, were united in marriage. The Rev. J B Gough performed the ceremony. The bride couple who were unattended stood under an arch of evergreen trimmed with red berries. A horse shoe of white milk weed tied with white satin ribbon was suspended from the centre. The church was also very tastefully decorated for the occasion. As the bride proceeded up the aisle on the arm of her father, the hymn, "The voice that breathed o'er Eden" was sung. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white nun's veiling entrance, trimmed with white ribbon and chignon with veil of tulle fastened with white hyacinths and carried a bouquet of white carnations and asparagus fern. Mr Harry Peatman and Mr Fred Short acted as ushers. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride at Willow Point. During the evening an elegant supper was served to about forty guests. A large number of useful and costly presents were received by the bride that of the groom being an elegant ostrich feather fan and a box of French perfumery.
