A pleasant Westfield event which we were unable to chronicle last week was the "candy pull" held on the beach on Thursday evening.

Between forty and fi ty young couple gathered around the huge bon fire, and for a couple of hours mirth reigned supreme.

The candy pull was given for the pleasure of Miss Sweetie Brown of New York, who has been spending several weeks at Westfield, the guast of Miss Sears.

The Masquerade dance given by Mrs, Edward Sears on the following evening was a most enjoyable and successful affair.

The spacious barn on the Sears property was used for dencing purposes. A splendid orchestra consisting of piano, banjo, mendolin and cornet the light fantastic.

The usual number of grotesque and ridiculously funny costumes were worn while several very pretty and effective toilettes were noticed. Miss Geraldine Sears and Miss Brown as the graces elicited many flattering comments.

The guests thoroughly erjoyed the evening and dancing was kept up until a very late hour. Those present speak of the masquerade as being the very pleasantest of a gay season's festivities.
