INSURES LOVE AND A HAPPY HOME.

L. W. KNAPP, M. D.

See any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Finally send your name and address to Dr. L. W. Knapp, 2009 Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and he will gladly send the free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is entirely a most generous offer and the doctor is giving extracts taken from his daily mail show what men think of his generosity.

"Dear Sir:—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have seen your treatment through, felt the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely raced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for the asking and he wants every man to have it.

HOW TO CARVE A TURKEY.

The Art Made Plain For the President Of the Feast.

Custom has made it usual hereabouts to eat turkey for our Christmas dinner, and accordingly the festive bird will grace many a table. But it is not everybody who knows how to carve a turkey, and the hints given here may help many a bewildered man to so demean himself that the ordeal may not disgrace him in the eyes of the wife of his bosom, as well as of those guests who may be present at his board.

Have the turkey resting upon his breast. Put the two tined fork in about an inch in front of the peak of the breastbone, where it will sink into a hollow formed by the peculiar conformation of the breastbone. The bird is then held firmly while the carving is being done.

The first thing to do is to take off the legs at the second joint. Cut down alongside the leg and bear outward a little, with the knife set well in.

The knife is inserted above the leg, and after making an incision it is pressed out ward. The second joint then parts easily from the body. After both legs are removed in this manner the wings should be cut off, the knife being used on particularly the same principle as that employed in removing the legs.

The next point for the skillful carver is to separate the drumstick, or first joint from the rest of the leg. This is done by fixing the fork in the second joint and the end of the leg is then pressed down with the knife.

The breast of white meat is now attacked. The fork is again placed over the breast bone in the original position, and slices are removed from the breast. The slicing should commence near the peak of the breastbone, the cuts being taken thinly, the knife held horizontally and the cuts extending downward toward the wings.

After the meat has been taken from both sides of the turkey's breast in this fashion the knife is inserted transversely behind the little projection on the breast between the peak and the neck. This is formed by the wishbone, or merry thought. The knife slips easily between this and the breastbone, so that the wishbone is easily removed, carrying with it a liberal portion of white meat. The removal of the wish bone makes a convenient opening into the interior of the turkey through which a spoon may be inserted for the removal of the tasty dressing.

Nothing now remains but the carcass of the turkey, and the only task is to disjoint it. This is done by first removing the breastbone. By means of the fork the peak of bone is raised and swung over toward the neck, disjoining it near the base of the latter. The neck, if desired, can be removed, leaving only one more portion of bird to be dealt with. This is the backbone.

The backbone is broken about three inches above the tail and there you are. The dismemberment of your turkey is now complete.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER has proved a blessing to many a man before the public in cases of hoarseness, bad throat, tonsillitis and catarrh. Some of the most recent evidence of its efficacy comes from a well-known actor, whose home is in New York City. He says: "I never found anything to equal this remedy for quick relief." 50 cents.—Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

Not so Very Hard,

Jack's father is a member of a society for 'psychical research,' and Jack has heard and overheard a good deal about mind-reading and thought transference. His mother has had periods of alarm lest her son's mental development should outrun his physical health.

Recently, however, the boy organized a 'mind class' of his own, the members consisting of a number of playmates whom he had induced to join either by moral suasion or by bribes; and his mother, after over-hearing the problem which closed the session, concluded that the strain on Jack's mind was not so severe as she had supposed.

Jack had left the reluctant class in the hall while he repaired to the pantry. In a few minutes his mother heard his address to his pupils.

"Now you've all got to think hard and quick," he said, briskly. "How many doughnuts have I got in my two biggest pockets? The boy or girl that guesses right will get the two doughnuts that are extras, for a prize; the rest of you can only have one apiece."

Dyspepsia

That means a great deal more than pain in the stomach, else it might be easily cured. It means that that organ lacks vigor and tone and is too weak properly to perform its functions.

It means, too, that much that is eaten is wasted and the system generally under-nourished.

W. A. Nugent, Belleville, Ont., had dyspepsia for years; so did H. Budan, San Luis Obispo, Cal. Mrs. C. A. Warner, Central City, Neb., was so afflicted with it she could scarcely keep anything on her stomach and became very weak and poor.

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured these sufferers, according to their own voluntary statements, as it has cured others. Take it.

One Cold saved.

Logic is logic, whether it touches the affairs of nations or a cold in the head. The conviction, says, Tit-Bits, was forced upon a Liverpool woman whose coachman, although he has been ill for several days, appeared one morning with his hair closely cropped.

Why, Dennis said the mistress, whatever possessed you to have your hair cut while you had such a bad cold?

Well, mum, replied the unabashed Dennis, I do be takin' notice this long while that whiniver I have me hair cut I take a bad cold, so I thought to meself that now, while I had the cold on to me, it would be the time of all others to go and get me hair-cuttin' done, for by that course I would save meself just one cold. Do you see the power of me reasoning, mum?

What He Came For.

A learned judge who was one of the guests at a dinner was unexpectedly called upon to reply to a toast. Recovering somewhat from his surprise, he said that his situation reminded him of the story of a man who fell into the water while he was fishing.

With no little difficulty he was rescued, and after he had regained his breath and was in a fairly comfortable condition, his rescuer asked how he came to fall into the water.

"I did not come to fall into the water, replied the unfortunate fisherman. I came to fish."
