DAVID FANNING

BEGS leave to inform his friends, that he intends continuing to keep Tavern at the corner of St. James's street, where Boarding and Lodging may be had at moderate prices, and every attention will be paid to make gentlemen comfortable. No longer credit than for a week can be given.

All persons who stand indebted to me are desired to make payment on or before the last day of June ensuing, otherwise their accounts will be put into an Attorney's hands, without exception.

HAS removed from St. James's Street, at the entrance of the lower cove, to No. 304 King Street, next door to Mr. Millard's Tavern, where he carries on his business as a Tobacconist, in all its various branches.—He has for Sale, Leaf, Twist, Figsal, Carrot, Shag or Oak, Flue or Spun Tobacco, Scotch and Rapce Snuff, Pipes, &c. &c. &c. wholesale and retail, on the most reasonable terms.
