GAZETTE,

THE ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1786.

ST. JOHN: Printed by CHRISTOPHER SOWER, Printer to the KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY, at his Printing-Office in Dock Street, two Doors below Mr. LEONARD'S.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

THOMAS CARLETON, Esq.

Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, and Territories thereto depending, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a proclamation bearing date the fourth day of March 1785 permission was given to all loyalists residing in the United States of America to transport themselves with their effects to this province in any vessels, and whereas sufficient time has been allowed for persons of the above description to avail themselves thereof: I publish this proclamation by and with the advice of his Majesty's council, for the information of those whom the same may concern, hereby declaring that the permissions contained in the said proclamation shall from henceforth cease and determine and that in future every vessel which shall on any pretence whatever, enter the ports or harbours of this province, and be unfurnished with a legal register, or shall not be navigated according to law, will be deemed subject to forfeiture and be seized accordingly.

Given under my hand and seal at the City of Saint John, this second day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty six, and in the twenty fifth year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's COMMAND,

(Signed) JONATHAN ODELL.

SAINT JOHN, July 11, 1786.

WHEREAS it has appeared by an advertisement inserted in the Royal Gazette, that the subscriber was in partnership with Henry Underwood and George Hydecker, this is therefore, to acquaint the public that no such partnership exists nor ever will, nor will he pay or be answerable for any debt or debts which they may contract.—The intent of said advertisement being to acquaint the public that I had purchased a set of tools for Henry Underwood, that he was employed as a blacksmith, and would do all kinds of work appertaining to his profession, in the best manner.—That George Hydecker had a gunsmith's shop on my land, where he proposed carrying on the gunsmith business, tanning, shoemaking, &c.

DAVID FANNING.

St. John, New-Brunswick, July 2, 1786.

WHEREAS in the seventh section of the Act of Assembly passed the 15th of March last, entitled, "An Act for raising a revenue in this province," it is enacted, "That each and every tavern-keeper, innholder or retailer of spirituous or other liquors, are to account once in three months, under oath or affirmation for the whole of the spirits or liquors they have sold in that time, with the treasurer of the county in which they reside, and pay to him three pence for each and every gallon of rum or other spirituous liquors so sold by him or them, also six-pence for every gallon of wine, and one penny for each and every gallon of malt liquor, they have sold and retailed in that time." I therefore request that all those of the above description in the city and county of St. John, do pay strict attention to said law and account without agreeable thereon.
