

SAINT JOHN, March 13, 1786.

By order of the Common Council.

THIS day published a law to prevent the burning of chimneys within this city. Also a law to prevent fraud and deceit in the baking and selling of loaf bread, and for ascertaining the standard of weights and measures in this city; by which is ordained, that the affire of bread within this city be as follows, to wit: A wheaten fix-penny loaf of the inch four to weigh 2 pounds 2 ounces, and a twelve-penny loaf of the same flour to weigh 4 pounds 5 ounces. B. CRANNEL, Clk.

William Donaldson,

HAS declined the business of an INSURANCE BROKER, and returns thanks to his friends for the favors he has received in that, and his other business: all his concerns as a Broker, will be settled in the course of next month.

That business will be followed by Mr. JAMES HAYT, whose fidelity, attention and punctuality, will doubtless merit the public favor.

St. John, March 24, 1786.

WANTED,

A MAN SERVANT who can be well recommended, if he can dress hair to much the better; good wages will be given.—Enquire of the PRINTER.

TO BE LET,

For one year from the first of May next:

THE STORE and WHARF of Mr. Paul Bédell, now occupied by Mr. Richard Seaman, in Dock-street, King's Ward. Also either of the DWELLING HOUSES which are now occupied by Mr. Charles N. Taylor, and Mr. John Smith, in Prince-William-street. Conditions may be known by applying to Mr. Thomas Lawton, No. 89, Germain-street. March 23, 1786.

JAMES HAYT,

IS induced by the encouragement of a very extensive acquaintance to commence the business of INSURANCE BROKER in this city.

He therefore informs the public he has annexed to his AUCTION and COMMISSION BUSINESS, which will be transacted by him, in their respective branches, with fidelity, punctuality, and the strictest attention to the interest of his employers.

Proposals for the INSURANCE BUSINESS will be received in writing only, particularly describing the vessel, number of hands, and voyage, which will be regularly attended to.

THE subscriber who had the misfortune of losing his horses on the 14th instant, near Spoon Island on the river St. John, begs leave to return his most cordial thanks to those benevolent gentlemen, who have so liberally subscribed (to the amount of near £18.) towards his relief; he is now once more enabled to gain a livelihood for a distressed family, and will at all times gratefully remember the great relief he has received from their benevolence.

WILLIAM BURTIS.

March 27th 1786.

THE Co-partnership of RICHARD & WILLIAM SEAMAN will be dissolved the first of May next, they therefore request all those who have any demands against them, to bring in their accounts for payment, and those who are indebted to them, are requested to discharge the same before that time. St. JOHN, March the 20th, 1786.

JOSEPH CLERK, Just. P.

HAVING made application to his Excellency the Governor for Lot No. 26, in Burton, County of Sonbury known by Langties Lot—All persons having claims thereto are desired to make them known to the Secretary of the province within three weeks from the date hereof. Feb. 21, 1786. GILBERT CURRY.

APPPLICATION having been made by the subscriber for Lot No. 8, (second lot) Hawley and Michens's left survey on the Grand-Lake, drawn by Lawrence Leedings. Any person having claim to the said Lot, will make it known to the Secretary of the province within three weeks from the date hereof. St. John, Feb. 21, 1786. THOMAS PATTEN.

St. George, Passamaquaddy, Feb. 10.

RUN-AWAY from the subscriber, his indentured servant, JOHN McINTOSH, alias CRERAR, a native of North Britain; was a soldier in the 42nd Highlanders, but in his discharge crated the words private, and inserted the word corporal in his place; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and stout made; has generally a multiplicity of cloaths on to prevent the effects of cold, and usually wears a grey jockey-coat over all. As the term of his indentures does not expire till spring 1787, and as it is very prejudicial to his masters interest to want his service, to whom he is also otherwise considerably indebted: these are therefore forwarding the inhabitants of the city of St. John (where he is now lurking) and all others to retain, harbour or employ the said John McIntosh, to prevent his returning to his said service, otherwise they shall be prosecuted as the law directs.
