THOMAS CARLETON, Esq.
Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, and Territories thereon depending, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

(Signed)
THOMAS CARLETON.

WHEREAS by a proclamation bearing date the fourth day of March 1785 permission was given to all loyalists residing in the United States of America to transport themselves with their effects to this province in any vessels, and whereas sufficient time has been allowed for persons of the above description to avail themselves thereof: I publish this proclamation by and with the advice of his Majesty's council, for the information of those whom the same may concern, hereby declaring that the permissions contained in the said proclamation shall from henceforth cease and determine and that in future every vessel which shall on any pretence whatever, enter the ports or harbours of this province, and be unfurnished with a legal register, or shall not be navigated according to law, will be deemed subject to forfeiture and be seized accordingly.

Given under my hand and seal at the City of Saint John, this second day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty six, and in the twenty sixth year of His Majesty's reign.

By His EXCELLENCY'S COMMAND,
(Signed) JONATHAN ODELL.

JOHN SMITH,

INTENDS to leave this province since the latter end of February next, therefore, once more requests all those any wife indebted to him, to pay their arrears without loss of time; as the accounts of every delinquent will then be put into the hands of an attorney, with positive instructions to sue for the same, And all those who have any demands against him are desired to bring in their accounts immediately that they may be forthwith adjusted.

He has also an assortment of
