

ROYAL

AND

NEW-BRUNSWICK

GAZETTE,

THE ADVERTISER.

T U E S D A Y, JANUARY 13, 1789.

ST. JOHN: Printed by CHRISTOPHER SOWER, Printer to the KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY, at his Printing-Office in Germain Street, near Saint James's-Street.

Pro Bono Publico, or

CHARLES LOOSLEY, is not dead (Long Live) as reported, but lives at Grimmas Neck, in the Royal County of Queen's, in a good stately looking house, rather embellished but comfortable. By him the hungry can yet get the best food, the sharpest good drink, and the warm beds; and for their horses warm stables, oats, and English hay, at moderate prices, as usual.

PRO BONO PUBLICO, also informs all those gentlemen who are indebted to him (for the fourth and last time) that unless they discharge their arrears, in fourteen days from the date hereof, he will be under the disagreeable necessity of putting them without discrimination in a Common Cage, or go in one himself.
