vince of New-Brunswick, &c.
&c. &c.

Thos. Carleton.

A PROCLAMATION.

HEREAS the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province stands prorogued to the Second Tuesday of this inst. May, I have therefore thought fit, by and with the advice of His MAJESTY'S Council, further to prorogue the said General Assembly, and the same is hereby prorogued to the Second TUESDAY in August next.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the Thirteenth day of May, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Nine, & in the Thirty-Ninth Year of our Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
JON. ODELL.

BY AUTHORITY.

The following clauses of "An Act to prevent bringing Infectious Distempers into the City of St. John," &c. are published for the information of the Public, and that no person may plead ignorance of the same.

PASSED the 8TH FEB. 1799.
II. And be it further enacted, That no Vessel having on board the Yellow Fever, Putrid Bilious Fever, or other peffilential or contagious distemper, or coming from any place infected with any of the before mentioned distempers, shall come, or proceed, or be navigated, or consorted further from the sea, towards, or higher into the Harbour of Saint John, than the Point commonly called Pagan's Point, or a line running due West therefrom, until such Vessel shall, after her arrival, have anchored at some place between the Point, and line aforesaid, and Partridge Island, and there have been and remained at anchor for the space of Three Days, nor until said Vessel shall have been duly inspected and examined, and shall have obtained a License for that purpose from the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of the said City of Saint John, or any two of them; which License shall in no case be granted in less than three days after anchoring as aforesaid: And in case such License shall be denied, and it shall be judged expedient by the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or any two of them, that the said Vessel, with the Cargo, and Goods, and all persons on board should ride or perform Quarantine, then the Master or Commander, or other person having charge of the said Vessel, for the time being, shall cause the said Vessel with all the Persons, and Goods, and Cargo, on board, to anchor in such place and for such length of time not exceeding Forty Days, as the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or the major part of them shall direct and appoint; and all and every Master and Masters, and Commander and Commanders of Vessels, and every other Person, who shall disobey or contravene any such direction or appointment, or neglect to execute and perform the same, or shall without a License for that purpose first had and obtained, from the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or any two of them, go on shore, or put on shore, or unlade or assist in putting on shore, or unlading any Person or Goods from any such Vessel as aforesaid, before the said Quarantine, or time of anchoring so limited, directed and appointed, shall be fully completed and expired, shall for each and every offence, severally forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Master and Commander of every Vessel, having on board the Yellow Fever, Putrid Bilious Fever, or any other peffilential or contagious Distemper, or coming from any place infected with any of the aforesaid mentioned Distempers, shall immediately after her arrival at or within Partridge Island, at the mouth of the Harbour of Saint John, hoist such Vessel's Ensign with the Union down, or if there be no Ensign on board, then he shall hoist such other Colour as shall be on board half mast, and continue the said Signal so hoisted, until a License be had to remove the same, from the said Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen, or any two of them, which License shall in no case be granted in less than three days after first anchoring as aforesaid, unless the Penalty of Twenty Pounds, for each and every offence.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, other than a Physician appointed as aforesaid, shall go on board any Vessel so arriving as aforesaid, or which shall have on board any Person or Persons infected as aforesaid, with any of the Fevers or Distempers aforesaid, after her having therein hoisted such signal as aforesaid, before the granting of such License as aforesaid for the Vessel to proceed into the inner Harbour nor before the expiration of three Days from and after the time of her first coming to anchor as aforesaid, between Pagan's Point and Partridge Island, under the penalty and forfeiture of Twenty Pounds for each and every offence.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons other than a Physician appointed, as aforesaid, shall go on board any such Vessel so coming from any infected place as aforesaid, or having any person on board so infected as aforesaid, after such signal therein hoisted, as aforesaid, and before the granting of such License for the Vessel to proceed as aforesaid, and the expiration of the said three days anchoring as aforesaid, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the next preceding Section, that then and in such case, the Master or Commander of such Vessel for the time being, be authorized and required to keep and detain such Person or Persons aforesaid, on board the said Vessel, until such License as aforesaid for the Vessel to proceed be duly granted, and until the expiration of such time as shall be directed and appointed, by the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or the major part of them, for the said Vessel to ride Quarantine or to anchor, in case such License shall be denied, and if any Master or Commander of such Vessel shall permit any Person or Persons, other than the Physician aforesaid, so to come on board, as aforesaid, contrary to the prohibitions and provisions aforesaid, and the true intent and meaning of this Act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of Twenty Pounds for each and every offence. And if any such Person or Persons so having unlawfully gone on board any such Vessel as aforesaid, contrary to the prohibitions and provisions aforesaid, and the true intent and meaning of this Act, shall go on shore or depart from the said Vessel, before such License as aforesaid, shall be granted, or if a License shall be denied before the expiration of the time appointed as aforesaid, for the said Vessels anchoring, and Quarantine aforesaid, then and in such case every Person and Persons so offending, as aforesaid, and going on shore or departing from the said vessel as aforesaid, and the Master or Commander of any such Vessel, so permitting the same Person or Persons to go on shore, or to depart from the said Vessel, and every other Person or Persons aiding or assisting therein, shall for each and every offence, severally forfeit and pay the sum of Fifty Pounds.
