FOR SALE,

THE ESTATE or FARM of ROBERT SCOTT of Salisbury, Esquire, on the Petticoadie, beautifully situated with a fine Trout, Smelt and Salmon Fishery. The Land consists of above eight hundred Acres, and extends a mile and half a quarter upon the River, which with two large brocks, which run through the same to all advantage, make a great part of it intervale, and that which is not, is esteemed by many no way inferior to the real intervale itself. The place lies in the heart of a settlement, and at present keeps a good stock of Cattle; and as the frosts are not here so prevalent, Indian Corn and all kinds of Grain are raised in perfection. The Farmer can be at no loss to judge that great improvement can be made. On the premises there is a genteel, neat, commodious Framed House, which though it stands but on a small eminence, you command a prospect of the Farm, the River up and down, and see the traveller in his way from Fort Cumberland to the City Saint John—And what may yet further truly recommend it that Mr. Scott will (according to value) sell cheap, and give the most reasonable terms of payment; being now grown to years, and no ion living with him, seeks to disentangle himself from the care, the hurry and bustle of life. Salisbury, Sept. 5th, 1800.
