

Court of Apollo.

WINTER.
A N O D E.

NO more the Morn, with rapid Unfolds the flow'rs of various hue; Noon spreads no more the genial blaze, Nor gentle Eve distills the dew.

The ling'ring hours prolong the night, Usurping darkness shares the day;
Her mists restrain the force of light,
And Phœbus holds a doubtful way.

By gloomy twilight half reveal'd, With sighs we view the hoary hill,
The leafless wood, the naked field,
The snow-tipt cot, the frozen rill.

No Music warbles thro' the grove.
No vivid colours paint the plain;
No more with devious steps I rove Thro' verdant paths, now fought in vain.

Aloud the driving tempest roars!
Congeal'd th' impetuous show'rs descend;
Hast—close the window, bar the doors, Fate leaves me STELLA, and a friend!

In Nature's aid, let art supply With light and heat my little sphere; Rouse, rouse the fire! pile it high, Light up a constellation here!

Let Music sound the voice of joy, Or mirth repeat the jocund tale; Let love his wanton wiles employ,
And o'er the season wine prevail!

Yet time life's dreary Winter brings, When mirth's gay tale shall please no more,
Nor Music charm, tho' STELLA sings, Nor love, nor wine, the Spring restore.

Catch then! Oh! catch the transient hour,
Improve each moment as it flies;
Life's a short summer!—Man a flow'r, He dies,—alas! how soon he dies!

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
THOMAS CARLETON, Esq.

Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c.
&c. &c.

THOS. CARLETON.
A PROCLAMATION.

BY Virtue of the Power and Authority granted to me, in and by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Twenty-eighth year of His MAJES-TY'S Reign, intituled, "An Act for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His MAJESTY'S Colonies and Plantations in North-America and in the West-India Islands and the Countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His MAJESTY'S said Subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West-Indies"—I do, by and with the advice and consent of His MAJESTY'S Council, publish this Proclamation, hereby authorizing and permitting Wheat, Rye, Rice or Indian Corn and the Flour of Wheat or Rye—also Ash Oar-Rafters and Capstain Bars, Staves, Heading and Treenails, to be imported by British Subjects in British built ships owned by His MAJESTY'S Subjects and navigated according to Law, from any of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, for and during the term of Six Months from this date—and of this Proclamation all Persons whom it may concern will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the first day of January, in the Year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and two, and in the forty-second year of His MA-JESTY'S Reign.

By His EXCELLENCY'S Command,
JON. ODELL.

The Town and Township of DIGBY.

AS It is probable that the Peace which has lately taken place, may occasion many military and other transient persons to look for settlements in these Provinces, and as some such may incline towards Digby (where a field offers itself suited to various kinds of adventurers) several gentlemen of that place have associated for the purpose of removing (as much as is practicable) such difficulties as are most likely to oppose themselves to new settlers—

To prevent imposition, uncertainty and delay from discouraging new comers, they have selected and secured a number of commodious house-lots in the Town-plot, upon each of which, they have fixed a moderate price, not exceeding the lowest rate of selling for three years past—a proportion of these, adjoining the water, are adapted to trading persons—Others, are calculated for mechanics—and a few more, for such as are only concerned in having an agreeable building spot for a house, and room for a garden. The first applicant will have the first choice, and so on with other applicants in succession, till the whole are sold at the prices fixed; a quantity of wild lands, laid out in farm lots, is also in like manner to be sold, and the purchasers will be secured against all deception with respect either to the titles, boundaries or qualities of the soil—

The society will further give the best information in its power to such, as on their first arrival are inclined to make other purchases, or to engage in any business or contract.

The Township of Digby extends from the Gut of Annapolis westward to the extremity of the Province of Nova-Scotia, and contains about one hundred and fifty thousand acres; of which, a body of about twenty five or thirty thousand, lying to the southern or inland side, is still in the possession of the crown, un-granted; the remainder is all appropriated, surveyed, divided into lots and planned—and, by the care of Government, it has lately been secured to the present owners under a clear and effectual grant. The lands in general are good, well wooded and watered; and the Township throughout its whole length is interspersed with settlements —Being washed by the Bay of Fundy and deeply indented by St. Mary's Bay, it has a great proportion of sea coast, and an ample share of all the kinds of sea-fisheries common in Nova-Scotia.

The Town-plot is situated at the East end of the Township, just within the entrance of the Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis town, and six miles across land, from the head of St. Mary's Bay. It is laid out from the waters edge partly on level ground and partly, on the declivity of a moderate hill, dry and pleasant, and having, with an eastern aspect, a view of an Annapolis Basin, and its cultivated shores for twenty miles, to where, it terminates with the Fort and Rivers mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New-York in the year 1773, the most of whom went early to farms, or moving to older countries, left the whole side to be bought up and improved by about sixty families, who now reside in it, having detached but comfortable dwellings, with little gardens and orchards, and carrying on some fishery and foreign trade. It has good communication both by land and water with all parts of the County of Annapolis. Provisions in it are plenty and cheap.
Building materials readily to be procured, and from many local circumstances, there is a probability of its becoming a place of some consideration for ship-building, the fisheries and west-India Trade, as well as a pleasant, cheap, and comfortable place of residence.

Any person whose attention may be called by the foregoing, on addressing a letter postpaid to Mr. Wiffwall at Digby, will receive an immediate and explicit answer to such enquiries as he may be interested in making upon the subject.

Fredericton—They will put up at Mrs. VANDERBEAK'S, Fredericton, and at their own House in this City—The fare, &c. will be as formerly. They embrace this opportunity to assure their Friends and those who may favor them with their commands, that they will use the greatest speed possible, pay every attention to passengers, will take the utmost care of whatever Packages may be intrusted to them and faithfully and punctually deliver them.

St. John, Dec. 12, 1801.

NOTICE.

[By direction of the Executors.]

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of JOHN CARNES, late of Fredericton, in the County of York, (deceased,) either by Bond, Note, Book Account or otherwise, are requested to make immediate payment to the Subscriber, to whom all Persons having demands against the said Estate, are desired to present the same duly attested within 6 Months from this date.

ANDREW PHAIR.

Fredericton, N. B. Jan. 8, 1802.

Cobbett & Morgan,

At the Crown and MITRE, PAL-MALL, LONDON.

HAVING commenced Business under the Patronage of their Royal Highnesses the Prince of WALES, the Dukes of CLARENCE, KENT, and CUM-BERLAND, and Prince AUGUSTUS, beg leave to express a hope, that, by their earnest and constant endeavours to render their undertaking not altogether unworthy the protection of their Royal Patrons, they shall not fail to obtain some degree of encouragement from the Nobility and Gentry, and the Public in general.

In their Assortment, both of Books and Stationary, it has been their object to exhibit variety, utility, and elegance; and they are confident, that no one, who shall favour them with their custom, will ever have to complain of the unreasonableness of their charges, or of their want of attention to his orders.

Mr. COBBETT thinks he has some reason to expect, that many gentlemen in his Majesty's Colonies in America and the West-Indies, will be disposed to favour him with their custom; and he assures all those, who may be so disposed, that every order, whether large or small, with which they may honour him and his Partner, shall be executed upon the lowest terms, and with the greatest punctuality and dispatch. They have, constantly, an extensive assortment of books, in every department of Science and Literature; and, as to new publications in request amongst politicians and people of fashion, they trust they have an undoubted claim to pre-eminence.

They will take orders for Prints, Caricatures, Transparencies, Memorandum-Books, Maps, Charts, and, indeed, for every other article, that issues from the press, in whatever size or form.

To those who order books for sale again, or for the furnishing of schools or whole libraries, whether public or private, they will make a liberal discount; and for any customer, however small his order may be, they will cheerfully undertake, and diligently execute any commission to obtain old or scarce publications.

Every article of Stationary, but particularly such articles as are most frequently called for by Ladies and Gentlemen, they will supply in the most diversified assortments; and, they beg leave to conclude by stating, that no exertions shall be wanted, on their parts, to satisfy, oblige, and prove their gratitude towards, all those, who may think them worthy of their encouragement.
