The Schooner LARK.

THE Subscribers respectfully inform their Friends and the Public in general, that the LARK is a new vessel of 85 tons burthen—just off the Stocks, and is intended as a constant Trader from this Port to New-York.

Her accommodations are spacious and commodious, and such as have been long wanted here, every Passenger will manifest—they therefore solicit the patronage and support of that Public which they are ever anxious to serve.

JESSE WOODWARD,
JOHN GARRISON.

W. and G. return their sincere thanks to their Friends and Employers for past favors—and those who please to give them a preference in future may depend on their being faithfully served.

N. B. Passengers & Freight to New-York will be received at the customary charges.
