SAINT JOHN, 22d JUNE, 1803.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.

TAKEN from the Stable of the Subscriber, on Saturday, the 14th inst. a MARE and CHAISE, by one JOHN LEWIS, who carried with him a Woman, by the name of PRISCILLA BREED. The Mare was a sorrel, 14 hands high, 8 years old, a small strip of white on her face, and a dark spot on her buttocks; is a smart traveller, and trots all. The Chaise was a tub bottom, canvas top, olive colored body, the carpet much worn, and the boot rather small, not being the one made for the Chaise. Said LEWIS was a small or middling sized man, had on a dark mixed cassimere coat and pantaloons, swansdown or white vest, and wore white here, a green silk over his eyes; and about 18 months since was chief cook on board the U. S. frigate Constitution. Miss BREED is a slender, pale, thin faced person, wore a straw bonnet, trimmed with yellow ribbon, a light calico gown, and a long black cloak.

Whoever will take up said LEWIS, and secure him so that he may be brought to justice, and return the Mare and Chaise, shall receive Thirty Dollars reward, or Twenty Dollars for the Mare and Chaise only, and all necessary charges paid.

JAMES WILLIAMS, junr.

The Printers of the Quebec Gazette, Saint John Gazette, New-York Evening Post, and United States Gazette, are requested to copy the foregoing into their respective papers, and send on their bills for payment.
