A Law to regulate the Size of Fish Barrels and Inspectors of Fish, within the City of Saint John.

I. BE it ordained by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assisants of the City of Saint John, in Common Council convened, That from and after the first day of January next, no Cod, Herring, Shad, Scale Fish, or other pickled Fish (Salmon excepted) shall be bought, sold, or offered for Sale within the City of Saint John, in any Barrel, the contents of which shall be less than Twenty-eight Gallons Wine measure, or which shall be made of Staves less than Twenty-eight Inches in length, and half an Inch in thickness at the Bilge, and three-quarters of an Inch in thickness at the Chine, or which shall be secured with less than twelve good and sufficient Hoops, and in case any such Fish (except as before excepted) shall be sold or bought, or offered for Sale within the said City, in any Barrels which shall not be made in all respects as above mentioned, the person who shall buy, sell or offer to sell any such Barrel, not made in all respects as above mentioned, shall for each Barrel so bought, sold or offered for sale, forfeit and pay the sum of Five Shillings, one moiety of which penalty shall be paid to the person who shall give information of the offence.

II. And be it further ordained, That every Inspector of pickled Fish, shall open promiscuously one Barrel at the least in every four that shall be presented to him by any one person at any one time put up and cured for Inspection by any one person, and shall examine such Barrel so opened throughout and if he shall find the same in perfectly good order, it shall and may be lawful for him to brand as inspected, the remaining three Barrels, and so on through the whole quantity so presented by any person at any one time put up and cured for Inspection by any one person; but if such Inspector shall find any one Barrel so opened to be in bad order, and the Fish therein unfit for shipping, then such Inspector shall open and examine throughout every Barrel put up and cured by the same person and presented to him at that time and for every Barrel so examined throughout, re-packed and branded, if the same shall be good, such Inspector shall receive One Shilling, and for each Barrel so branded unopened, Two Pence from the person employing him, who shall recover the same from the person who put up and cured such Fish.

III. And be it further ordained, That if any person shall fraudulently put up in the same Barrel any other kind of Fish than that which such Barrel is sold for, or any other thing (Salt Pickle excepted) such person shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay the sum of Five Pounds.

IV. And be it further ordained, That every person who shall cure and put up pickled Fish for Sale or Exportation, shall put the initial letters of his Christian and Surname, with a branding or marking Iron on the head of each and every cask he shall so cure and put up, under the penalty of Five Shillings for each cask he shall neglect or refuse to mark in the manner aforesaid.

V. And be it further ordained, That all pickled Fish shipped for Exportation, shall be inspected and branded by some Inspector within Fourteen days next before the time of their being so shipped, under the penalty of Five Shillings for each and every Barrel that shall be shipped without having been so inspected and branded within Fourteen days as aforesaid, to be paid by the person shipping such Fish.

VI. And be it further ordained, That if any person shall, as an Inspector, brand any cask of pickled Fish as inspected, who shall not have been first legally appointed, sworn and qualified, such person shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay the sum of Five Pounds.

And if any Inspector legally appointed, sworn and qualified, shall brand any cask as inspected, which shall not be of the size and dimensions, and made agreeable to the directions of this Law, or which shall not be inspected agreeably to the regulations herein contained, such Inspector shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay the sum of Five Pounds.

The foregoing Law is inserted in the public Newspapers for the purpose of refreshing the memory of all COOPERS and other persons, concerned in making FISH BARRELS.—And they are to understand, that a most scrupulous compliance with the provisions thereof will be exacted the following year.

By order of the Common Council,
CHARLES I. PETERS, c. c.
