DR. JOSIAH FLAGG,

Respectfully acquaints the Public, that he continues the safe and salutary practice of his profession, as

SURGEON DENTIST,

At Mrs. HARDY'S, KING-STREET.

HE trusts it will not be deemed ostentation to say, that his mode of practice has stood the test of the most critical examination, for Fourteen Years past; and that when put in competition with the use of saws and files, together with vitriol, clove-oil, and similar corrosives, (an abuse which has crept into the profession through ignorance, and which he has proved to be highly insalutary) it must be acknowledged to have attained an eminence and usefulness, which merits its due and relative reward.

TEETH are reinfused by him, that are despaired of by the patient—are cured of their pain in a few seconds, and made perfectly sound—Loose Teeth can be made fast, without the hazard of mechanical operation, can be made as white as is natural to the enamel, and the gums hardened with perfect ease—Artificial Teeth are made and placed in the mouth, without injury to the natural ones, at from 2 to 14 dollars each—And Children's Teeth arranged to a perfect symmetry; and if crowded, can extend the jaws to receive their due proportion, without pain.

To strangers he recommends an inquiry of his skill, to the ablest Physicians in Town.

TEETH and Gum Brushes, Chewsticks, Masticks, Tinctures and Dentifrices, adapted to the several ages and complaints, and suited for both warm and cold climates, for Sale, by retail, or by the quantity, with Directions for their use, &c.

SAINT JOHN, 11th MARCH, 1805.
