Indian Tooth-Ache Drops.

AN efficacious remedy for the Tooth-Ache has been diſcovered by the Subſcriber, which has never failed, in hundreds of applications of it to the Teeth and Gums, has frequently been found ſufficient to eradicate this (of all others) moſt irkſome and intolerably painful diſeaſe. In general, its effect on the Teeth and Gums has been ſuch, that after uſing it three or four times, an inſtance of pain has not occurred. It is compoſed entirely of Indian Herbs and Roots; and is for ſale at J. S. MOTT's Printing-Office—Price Seven Shillings and Six pence per Phial.

The ſubjoined certificates of Alderman Furman and others will ſhew its wonderful effects.—They form but a ſmall proportion of the number that can be produced.

N. B. Theſe Drops will not injure the looks of Teeth or Gums, but will preſerve them white and clean.

MITCHEL M'CARTHY.

NEW-YORK, 17th DECEMBER, 1808.

At the requeſt of Mr. Mitchel M'Carthy, I do certify, that I was ſeverely afflicted with a tooth-ache and pain in my face the 1ſt September laſt—that I procured a phial of his drops on the 3d—was entirely relieved, and have not had it ſince. And alſo, that my black girl has been ſince ſeverely afflicted with the tooth-ache. I procured her a phial of the ſame drops which did alſo relieve her.

GABRIEL FURMAN, No. 3 Wall-Street.

HALIFAX, JUNE 8, 1809.

This is to certify, that I was for three years at times afflicted with that intolerable pain the tooth-ache, and having procured a phial of Mr. M'Carthy's Indian drops, I have not ſince felt the leaſt ſymptoms of it.

ELIZABETH HAWE, near the North Barrack.

HALIFAX, JUNE 10, 1809.

At the requeſt of Mr. M'Carthy, I do certify, that I have been ſeverely afflicted with the tooth-ache in May laſt, that having procured a phial of his drops, and after the firſt application as directed by him, I have felt no ſymptom of it ſince. JAMES O'ROURKE.
