

BOSTON, DECEMBER 25.

American Privateers in the West Indies.

Capt. Barnard, of the private armed schooner General Armstrong, has politely favored the Editors of the Mercantile Advertiser with a file of Barbadoes papers, (which he procured at sea) to the 19th of November, from which the following articles are taken:—

BRIDGETOWN, NOVEMBER 7.—On Wednesday last, an alarm was raised for the appearance of a fleet off this coast, which proved to be that from Cork, which sailed thence on 22d Sept. The Jamaica vessels proceeded yesterday under charge of the Fawn.

At the distance of about 180 miles to windward of this Island, the Fawn gave chase to an American topsail schooner privateer, and soon after spoke his Majesty's ship Tribune, which informed, that the enemy's cruiser had been in sight for the four preceding days, and appeared to have so much confidence of her ability to escape, that she did not resort to any of those customary measures of precaution, with vessels of her description, when a man of war is in view. On the same day, the Helena also observed a smaller privateer reconnoitring that part of the fleet which came more immediately under her charge.

Nov. 10.—We have the satisfaction of announcing the capture of the Yankee privateer brig of 16 guns, by His Majesty's brig Peruvian Capt. Westropp; the Opossum, Capt. Wolrige, was lately seen in chase of the Orders in Council, off St. Bartholomews.—There are two American schooners cruising to the windward, with which the Tribune fell in, but they escaped by superior sailing; and there is another of this description in the neighborhood of the Grenadines.

The American privateer schooner Blockade of 8 guns, but pierced for 18, boarded off Martinique a Swedish sloop from St. Bartholomews, that arrived at St. Vincent on the 30th ult.—This cruiser was from some part of Connecticut, and had then in company a schooner which she had captured, belonging to St. Lucia.

Nov. 14.—Accounts are daily received of depredations committed on our commercial pursuits by American privateers. The brig Union, from Guernsey, bound to St. Croix, was captured on the 26th ult.—200 miles to windward of this Island, by the General Armstrong, of 19 guns (one of large calibre on a traverse,) and 130 men; the master and crew were put on board a colony boat, with the intention of being landed at Berbice, but on its way thither, falling in with the schooner Industry, of this port, the master availed himself of a passage, and arrived here on Tuesday evening last.

By a schooner arrived this morning, that was boarded to leeward by the Joel Barlow, of 10 guns and 65 men, we learn that the brig Nancy, which sailed hence on Tuesday night last, for Guadaloupe, was taken on the following morning by this cruiser and sent to America, being the 13th prize that had fallen into her possession. The Ram (tender) that anchored in the bay yesterday, was chased by the enemy until she had neared this Island.

There are two privateers cruising off Demarara, with one of which the ship Caledonia, arrived at that colony, had an action, and succeeded in beating her off.—The Queen Charlotte Packet, and merchant brig Hawke, (armed) with a number of volunteers from the militia, and a party of the 60 reg't, had gone in pursuit of the enemy, but the result of their expedition was not known at the time of the latest departure from that colony, which has arrived here.

The Charybdis brig has captured the Blockade, privateer of 7 guns, the crew of which, and those belonging to the Yankee, and Providence, previously taken arrived here yesterday in the Mercury, (armed en file.) The Orders in Council effected her escape from the Opossum, after an exchange of 7 broadsides.

Upon going to press, the Martin sloop of war, from Halifax, came to anchor, being the bearer of orders for the Dragon 74, and Arachne brig, to sail immediately for Bermuda; and signals were made for a fleet to windward, probably that expected from London.

Nov. 17.—The following are particulars of the capture of the sloop Retrieve, Hill, master on her passage from Berbice to this Island—

October 31.—Observed in lat. 8 14, at 4 P. M. a sail bearing N. N. E. tacked and stood to the southward; at 5 P. M. the brig came up with us and fired two muskets; I then hove to, and he sent his boat on board; the officer of which desired me to go on board the brig with my papers, which I did, and found her to be the privateer Retaliation, from N. York, commanded by Samuel Newson. He then manned the sloop and took the prisoners on board the brig; and on the 24th Nov. we fell in with a ship, which they engaged; but finding her too heavy, and getting her main mast head much injured by the shot, he hauled off and bore up for Oronoque, where we arrived on the 28th Nov. and filled with wood and water.—He then took several articles from the sloop, and gave her up to me.

The Lancashire Witches, from Martinique arrived yesterday; she had sailed some time before for this Island, but was chased back by an American privateer; beside which a large schooner of 14 guns and another on a traverse having a smaller schooner in company as a tender, has been cruising for 3 days successively off Maran Bay; and it having been the opinion that a landing would be attempted by them, the Militia in that quarter of the Island has been kept under arms.

DEMARARA, DECEMBER 9.—H. B. M. Packet Queen Charlotte, and the armed brig Hawk, having returned into port this day with the Cork fleet, which was exposed to the enemy's vessels upon these coasts.

AMERICAN PRIZE LIST.

CHARLESTON, DECEMBER 5.—The privateer sch. Patriot, Merrihew, of New-York, has put into Georgetown in this state, after a cruise of 56 days, during which she burnt, sunk and destroyed nine vessels; put in distress, having sprung both masts and carried away her helm.

BAITMORE, DECEMBER 13.—Arrived, in the Bay the English ship John Hamilton, Thompson, from Honduras for London, with 700 tons mahogany, captured 25th ult. in lat. 30, by the privateer Dolphin, Capt. Spofford, after a long action; fortunately without the loss of any lives. Several were wounded on both sides—the ship mounts four long nines, and twelve 12-pound carronades and 30 men. She spoke an English brig from Brazils, coming in, captured by the United States brig Argus.

NEW-YORK, DECEMBER 21.—Arrived, privateer schooner General Armstrong, Barnard, from a cruise. October 20th, captured the brig Union, [arrived here] October 31st, off Courantin River, (Dutch Guiana) captured the schooner Tiger, being of no value, gave her up to the brig Union's crew. November 1st, off Surinam, captured the valuable ship Queen, of 12 guns and 35 men, from Liverpool for Demarara, after a smart action of 30 minutes, in which the Captain, first mate and one man were killed, and the second mate and 5 men badly wounded. We had one man killed, and one slightly wounded; our mainmast, bowsprit and sails much injured; ordered her for the first port. 13th, fell in with, and on the 18th parted from the privateer Tom, of Baltimore. 14th, captured the brig Lucy and Alida, of 10 guns and 9 men, from London for Surinam. 19th, the ship Sir Sidney Smith, of 12 guns and 18 men, from do. for do. after an exchange of a few shots. 21st, off Demarara captured the sch. Fame, from Barbadoes for Demarara not worth sending in. 29th, engaged a large 22 gun ship, full of men, for 30 minutes, and ran her ashore off the mouth of Demerara river, the Gen. Armstrong touching at the time, was obliged to haul off, and leave the enemy aground.

DECEMBER 22.—Arrived, sloop Caroline, Eveleth prize-master, from Quebec bound to Tortola, cargo flour and staves, captured November 18th, in lat. 18, long. 61, by the Retaliation privateer, of this port.

The British brig Devonshire, has arrived at Quimper, (France) a prize to the American privateer brig Detalur, of Newburyport. She was taken on the Banks, and was loaded with codfish and salt; W. Nichols, prize-master.

The British brig Sophie, (in co. with a 74 and 3 frigates) had recaptured a large British ship of 10 guns prize to the privateer schooner Revenge, of Philadelphia, going into the Chesapeake.
