TRURO, JUNE 14.

The Sun paper of Wednesday publishes the following intelligence in a second edition:

We lament to state, that the turbulent spirit, the existence of which in Yorkshire we have already mentioned, has embodied itself in direct defiance of the laws. By the following Letter, which we have just received, it appears, that a considerable body of Rioters have assembled with arms in their hands, and have proceeded to acts of violence:

"Huddersfield, June 9, 1817.

"In consequence of information received by the Magistrates, the Huddersfield Yeomanry were ordered out yesterday, and between this place and Henley, came up with a party of Rioters, reported to amount to some hundreds. The Rioters, discharged several shots, and wounded the horse of Mr. David Alexander. They afterwards dispersed.---All is quiet to day."

We understand that some disturbances have taken place in Derbyshire, in the neighborhood of Whinfield, which, we have reason to believe, were soon suppressed by the active exertions of the Yeomanry Cavalry.

A large body of armed men, from Offerton, and Ripley, in Derbyshire, were met on Tuesday, on their march to Nottingham, by the Magistrates, and two troops of the 15th Hussars. The result of the meeting is not known. Some of the rioters were armed with fire arms, the rest with pikes. Their numbers were increasing and they had committed great depredations. One man was stated to have been shot by the rioters, who refused to deliver up the arms contained in his master's house. The county magistrates and the corporation of Nottingham, have taken the most judicious measures on the occasion.

The Right Hon. Robert Peel has been unanimously elected Member by the Convocation of the University of Oxford.

Mr. James Thornton, of Radcliff-street, Bristol, in reply to a letter addressed to the Master of the Mint, on the subject of the light gold in circulation, has been officially informed, "that it is not understood there will be any exchange of the old coins for new, now in progress at the Mint. The current weight of a Guinea is 5 dwts. 8grs.; and the other gold coins at present in circulation in like proportion. All under that weight are not legal tender."

CHARLESTON, JULY 12.

PROCLAMATION

OF THE LIBERATING ARMY.

GREGOR MAC GREGOR, General of Brigade to the Armies of the United Provinces of New Grenada and Venezuela, and General-in-Chief of that destined to both the Floridas, with commission from the Supreme Governments of Mexico and South America, &c.

Soldiers and Sailors!—The 29th of June will be forever memorable in the annals of the independence of South-America. On that day, a body of brave men, animated by noble zeal for the happiness of mankind, advanced within gunshot of the guns of Fernandina, and awed the enemy into immediate capitulation, notwithstanding his very favourable position. This will be an everlasting proof of what the Sons of Freedom can achieve, when fighting in a great and glorious cause, against a Government which has trampled on all the natural and essential rights which descend from God to man. In the name of the Independent Govenments of South America, which I have the honour to represent, I thank you for this first proof of your ardor and devotion to her cause, and I trust that, impelled by the same noble principles, you will soon be able to free the whole of the Floridas from tyranny and oppression. Then shall I hope to lead you to South-America, to gather fresh laurels in freedom's cause. Your names will be transmitted to the latest posterity, as the first who formed a solid basis for the emancipation of these delightful and fruitful regions, now in a great part groaning under the oppressive hand of Spanish despotism. The children of South America, will re-echo your names in their songs; your heroic deeds will be handed down to succeeding generations, and will cover yourselves and your latest posterity with a never fading wreath of glory. The path of honor is now open before you. Let those who distinguish themselves look forward with confidence to promotion, and preferment.—To perpetuate memory of your valor I have decreed, and do decree, a shield of honor, to be worn on the left arm of every individual who has assisted or co-operated in the reduction of Amelia; this shield will be round, of the diameter of four inches, made of red cloth, with the device "Vencedores de Amalia, 29th of June de 1817, 7 y 1," surrounded by a wreath of laurel and oak leaves, embroidered in gold for the officers, in yellow silk for the men. The colors of the corps of national artillery, the first squadron of cavalry, and the regiment of Columbia, will have the same device embroidered on the right angle of the colors. Long live the conquerors of Amelia!

Dated at Head Quarters, San Fernandina, 1st July, 1817, 7—1.

GREGOR MAC GREGOR.

Jh. de Yribaren, Secretary.

*New-York, July 27. Watty Cox says, "The farther Emigrants remove from the Yankee character, from the cold climate and sandy soil of New York, the better. Those who are young and disengaged, would be right in preserving the ranks of the Southern Patriot Army. It was a few young Irishman, that under M'Gregor, made the conquest of Amelia Island, and opened the road to the Southern provinces."--"Exile."—Pray, Watty, is it cowardice, or indolence, that prevents you from joining them yourself?

PORTLAND, MASS. JULY 29.

Our readers will recollect that at the time of the capture of Eastport (Moose Island) during the late war, certain bonds for duties due the United States to the amount of 50 or 60,000 dollars, fell into the hands of the British. Payment of these bonds was attempted to be enforced by the captors, through the Court of Vice-Admiralty at Halifax. The following correspondence explains the very satisfactory close to which this part of the transaction has been brought.

Department of State, July, 15, 1817.

SIR—I have the honor to enclose the copy of a letter from Lord Castlereagh to Mr. Adams, just received from the latter at this office, stating that orders had been given for suspending all further proceedings in the case of Mr. Baxter's appeal, and for relieving the other obligors with him from all possible operation of the decree of condemnation passed by the Vice-Admiraly Court at Halifax, in relation to certain bonds seized at Moose Island during the late war.

It gives me great pleasure thus to make known to you, for the information of the parties concerned, the satisfactory result of the steps which were taken by this department, in consequence of your letter of the 17th of Sept. 1816.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully sir, your obedient servant,

RICHARD RUSH, Acting Secretary.

Wm. P. PREBLE, Esq. Attorney of the United States for the District of Maine.

(COPY)

The undersigned, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has the honor to acquaint Mr. Adams, in reference to the note which the undersigned had the honor to receive from him on the 17th January last, respecting certain Bonds seized during the late war at Moose-Island that orders have been given for the immediate suspension of all further, proceedings against Mr. Baxter, as well as for relieving, as suggested by Mr. Adams, in his note, the other obligors from any possible operation against them for the decree of condemnation passed by the Vice Admiralty Court of Halifax.

The undersigned regrets that such a delay has intervened between the receipt of Mr. Adams' note—and the present reply, but has the honor to acquant him that His Majesty's Advocate General was anxious to obtain all the information in his power respecting the transaction, and likewise to have a personal conference with the captors or their agent, before he gave in his report of the merits of the case.

The undersigned avails himself of this opportunity to renew to Mr. Adams the assurance of his high consideration.

(Signed) CASTLEREAGH.

Foreign Office, May 21, 1817.

ST. JOHN, 16th August.

General District Orders.

The efficient state of the 100th Regiment in the field this morning, and the manner in which the evolutions were performed, do credit to Major ROCHFORT and Officers of that Corps, and merit Major-General SMYTH's approbation.

The 100th Regiment being upon the eve of embarking for Europe, the Major-General avails himself of this opportunity of bearing testimony of the good state of that Corps; both from his own observation, as well as the reports of Officers under whom Detachments from it have been serving—and his Excellency cannot help expressing much regret at the departure of this Regiment from under his command, and begs to assure them, that they will carry with them his good wishes.

By Command.

(Signed) G. P. KEMBALL, A. D. C.
