Our private letters from Paris mention a report prevalent there, that one third (instead of one fifth) of the Army of Occupation is to be withdrawn.

Our private accounts from Paris state, that the illness of the King is of the most serious nature. The Physicians have pronounced that dropsy has taken place, and that the case is hopeless.

A letter from Madrid, of the 2d of Jan. says, "Our Gazette publishes nothing new: it continues to be filled with harrangues of felicitations on the King's marriage. We have here three Ambassadors, nominated to different Courts; the Duke del Parque, to Paris; M. de Cevallos, to Naples; and M. de Bardaxi, to Troin. None of them seem under the necessity of soon proceeding on their destination.—No news from America: this silence is painful."

Mr. Brougham has arrived at Paris on his return from Italy. He was present yesterday at the debates of the Chamber of Deputies on the law relative to personal liberty.

Letters from Warsaw entirely contradict the pretended intelligence of an extraordinary levy of conscripts in Poland.

The Republic of Geneva has decreed the rights of citizenship to the Court Capel d'Istria, the Russian Minister to the Helvetic Republic. The decree was presented in a superb gold box.

The King of Portugal is expected at Lisbon on a visit to his European territories in May next. The King and Queen of Spain, the infant Don Carlos, and Portuguese Princess, his wife, will proceed with the whole court to Badajoz, and the two Sovereigns will have an interview beyond the Guadiana.

There is a curious document from Constantinople: it is a kind of "State of the Nation" at the close of 1816, and from it we learn the curious fact, that the Holy Alliance of the European Sovereigns, nearly frightened the Turks out of their senses.

JANUARY 20.

The Gazette of Jan. 18, 1817, contains an Order in Council, continuing for six months, from the 13th of February, the prohibition against transporting, without leave of the Privy Council, gunpowder, saltpetre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to the coast of Africa,—West Indies, or Continent of America, the British Colonies and the United States excepted.
