A Summary Account of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.

(Concluded from our last.)

II. To disperse the HOLY SCRIPTURES, the LITURGY, and many pious and judicious BOOKS and TRACTS in the English language, on all the leading points of faith and practice, has been another principal branch of the SOCIETY'S designs, both at home and abroad: and in the pursuit of this object, they have been enabled, through the munificence of numerous benefactors, to send forth an almost incredible number of all these, as they trust, to the great temporal and everlasting comfort and welfare of multitudes of their fellow creatures. Of these books and tracts, and of the reduced prices, at which they are to be obtained by their own members, a detailed Catalogue is annexed.

In the year 1813, the attention of the SOCIETY was directed to the very important object of providing the Members of our Church with the means of perusing the Holy Scriptures with greater edification and comfort, and of preserving them steadfast in the profession of a pure and uncorrupted Faith, by the publication at a moderate rate, of a FAMILY BIBLE, accompanied with Notes, explanatory and practical, in all points of Doctrine and Discipline to be selected from approved Writers of the Church of England. This object has been happily accomplished; and an Edition, consisting of 16,500 Copies, on royal and medium paper has been already disposed of. A new Edition, similar in all respects to the first, and to be furnished to the Public on the same reasonable terms, is now in the course of publication.

The SOCIETY has also, from time to time, at very great charge, aided the Publication and Distribution of the Scriptures, and of various approved devotional and instructive Treatises in the WELSH, MANX, GAELIC, PORTUGUESE, FRENCH, DANISH, and GERMAN Languages.

In the year 1709, the SOCIETY circulated copies of a new edition of the Welsh Common Prayer Book.

In the year 1714, they issued Proposals for a new impression of the Welsh Bible, which obtained so extensive a patronage, that in 1718 an edition of above 7000 copies was finished, together with the Apocrypha, Book of Common Prayer, Psalms in the Metre, &c. By similar efforts, like impressions of 15,000, 15,000, 20,000, 10,000 and 20,000, copies respectively, were printed in the years 1748, 1753, 1770, 1799 and 1809; besides sundry separate editions of the New Testament and Liturgy. And though, by some of these very costly undertakings, the SOCIETY for a time was greatly reduced in its funds yet through the blessings of DIVINE PROVIDENCE, it was ever enabled speedily to regain more than its former powers, and to continue to prosper in its resources and operations more and more.

During all this period, many of the most valuable devotional and didactic Treatises, on the SOCIETY'S Catalogue, have, as occasion required, been translated into the Welsh language and printed for distribution.

In like manner, in the year 1763, the SOCIETY issued Proposals for printing the Bible, the Liturgy, and religious Books and Tracts in the vulgar tongue of the Isle of Man; in consequence of which (the undertaking being enforced by the recommendation and patronage of the excellent primitive Bishops Wilson and Hildesley) they were enabled, in a few years to disperse, gratuitously, a large impression of the New Testament, Book of Common Prayer, Christian Monitor, Lewis's Exposition, &c. &c. respectively. In 1773; they finished an edition of the Bible and Apocrypha, in the Manx language, and, in 1776, another of the New Testament in the same. Soon afterwards, 3000 copies of the Book of Common Prayer, and 3500 of Bishop Wilson's Treatise on the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, were printed and distributed: and in 1808, at the suggestion of the late Lord Bishop of Sodor and Man, they undertook a third edition of the Book of Common Prayer, which has been since finished, and is now in distribution, at a charge to the natives of little more than one third of the prime cost.

III. A third great branch of the SOCIETY'S designs has been to diffuse the blessings of Christianity by the establishment and support of RELIGIOUS MISSIONS, and other expedients necessary to that end; and, accordingly, while it has been careful to provide for the spiritual welfare of a few small islands near our own shores, it has also extended its regard to the destitute condition of the natives of AFRICA, and, on a more enlarged scale, to those of ASIA.

In the year 1752, the SOCIETY accepted a trust from the Rev. Mr. Hartshorne, Rector of Broseley, Salop; and from that trust, aided by the contributions of many other charitable individuals, but yet not without a considerable additional charge upon the general funds, we have been enabled to open Schools, and to support two Clergymen, as established Missionaries, in the SOILY ISLANDS.
