Fort St. Marks, 26th April, 1818.

The Court convened pursuant to the foregoing order, when, being duly sworn, in the presence of the prisoner, and he being asked if he had any objection to any member thereof, and replying in the negative, the following charges and specifications were read, viz.

Charges vs. A. Arbuthnot, now in custody, and who says he is a British subject.

Charge 1st.—Exciting and stirring up the Creek Indians to war against the United States, and for citizens, he (A. Arbuthnot) being a subject of Great Britain, with whom the United States are at peace.

Specification.—That the said A. Arbuthnot, between the months of April and July, or sometime in June, 1817, wrote a letter to the Little Prince, exhorting and advising him not to comply with the treaty of Fort Jackson, stating that the citizens of the United States were infringing on the treaty of Ghent, and, as he believed, without the knowledge of the Chief Magistrate of the United States; and advising the upper and lower Creeks to unite and be friendly, stating that William Hamblly was the cause of their disputes; also advising the Little Prince to write to the Governor of New-Province, who would write to the Prince Regent, through whom the United States would be called to a compliance with the Treaty of Ghent, and advising them not to give up their lands, under the treaty of Fort Jackson, for that the American citizens would be compelled to give up to them all their lands under the Treaty of Ghent.

Charge 2d.—Acting as a spy, and aiding, abetting, and comforting the enemy, supplying them with the means of war.

Specification 1st.—In writing a letter from the fort of St. Marks, dated 2d April, 1818, to his son John, at Suway, (marked A.) detailing the advance of the army under General Jackson, stating their force, probable movements, and intentions, to be communicated to Bowlegga, the chief of the Suway towns, for his government.

Specification 2d.—In writing the letters marked B, without date, and C, with enclosures, 27th January, 1818, and D, called "a note of Indian talk," and E, without date, applying to the British Governor, through Governor Cameron, for munitions of war, and assistance for our enemies; making false representations; and also applying to Mr. Bagot, British Ambassador, for his interference, with a statement, on the back of one of the letters, of munitions of war for the enemy.

Charge 3d.—Exciting the Indians to murder and destroy William Hamblly, and Edmund Doyle, and causing their arrest; with a view to their condemnation to death, and the seizure of their property.
