

SAINT JOHN, JAN. 19.

Fire!—Another of those alarming scenes occasioned by this devouring element, presented itself last Thursday evening. The Brewery, Malt House, and out Houses of Mr. DAVID MUNRO, in Portland, were all in flames and in a very short time reduced to ashes. On this occasion the exertions of the Hook and Ladder Company merit much commendation, who with the greatest promptitude preserved Mr. MUNRO's dwelling House, by pulling down an intervening building. The Military, under the command of Capt. STEWART, also very promptly appeared on the spot, to render their assistance.

His Majesty's Brig Nautilus has captured a piratical Brig near Old Providence, after a chase of 13 hours. The Nautilus arrived at Turks' Island 2d ult. with 44 pirates on board, bound to Old Providence to have them tried. The pirate was in the act of robbing an American ship when the Nautilus hove in sight. We have thus returned the compliment to our neighbours, "in protecting their commerce."—St. Andrews Herald.

Halifax, Jan. 23.
MELANCHOLY FIRE.—On the morning of Thursday last, a little before day light, a dwelling house occupied by Mr. QUIN, a poor man residing on the north-east side of McNab's Island, was discovered to be on fire. The wife of Mr. QUIN had been delivered of a child only the day previous, and the fire communicating with some straw in the loft, spread with such fierceness and rapidity, that it was with difficulty he saved his wife and new born infant, through a window, and laid them in a blanket on the snow. In that dreadful state they remained for a considerable time; and are now lying dangerously ill. The husband in the meanwhile was straining every nerve to rescue from the flames his other two children, who were respectively 18 months, and 4 years of age. But the desperate exertions of a father were, alas! unavailing. As he approached the spot, half suffocated with smoke, and frantic with anxiety, the roof fell in, and both the children perished in the flames.

Montreal, December 8.
Extract of a Letter from a respectable Mercantile House in London, dated, 27th September 1821, to their Correspondents in this city.

"We understand that you are preparing Petitions against our Corn Laws—but unless they are backed with strong remonstrances from the Legislatures of both the Provinces, we fear they will do no good. The only chance you have, is by proving the trifling quantity you can at any time send, which is not on your average exports since the conquest, one day's consumption of the United Kingdom—Our landed interest is so powerful that if they consider you of any consequence, no relief will be granted."
