NOTICE.

Secretary's Office, 29th June, 1822.

WARRANTS on the Province Treasury will in future, when they are signed by the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, be lodged at the Treasurer's Office in Saint John.

By the Hon. WARD CHIPMAN, one of the Justices of His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature for the Province of New-Brunswick.

To all to whom it may concern, Greeting: WHEREAS it having been sufficiently attested before me, on the part of Joshua Hughson, of the City of Saint John, Merchant, that William Dougall, late of the City of Saint John, Mariner, is justly indebted to the said Joshua Hughson, in the sum of five hundred and ten pounds, over and above all discounts, and also proved to my satisfaction that the said William Dougall, departed from the Province after the said debt was contracted, and has not resided within the Province for the term of six months preceding this date: Pursuant to the Act of the General Assembly in such case made and provided, I have directed all the Estate as well real as personal within this Province, of the said William Dougall, to be seized and attached, and that unless the said William Dougall, do return and discharge the said debt or debts within six months from the publication hereof, all the Estate as well real as personal of the said William Dougall, within this Province, will be sold for the payment and satisfaction of the Creditors of the said William Dougall.

Dated this twenty-first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two.

WARD CHIPMAN.

BY AUTHORITY.

City of Saint John,
19th August, 1822.

WHEREAS His Excellency The LIEUT. GOVERNOR hath received, by the July Packet, from England, the following Act, passed by the Imperial Parliament, viz:—

“An Act to regulate the Trade between His Majesty's Possessions in America and the West Indies; and other Places in America and the West Indies.”—Also,

“An Act to regulate the Trade between His Majesty's Possessions in America, and the West Indies, and other Parts of the World.”

Which said Acts are to go into operation immediately: All Persons concerned therefore are desired to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

By His Excellency's Command,
GEORGE SHORE.

ANNO TERTIO
GEORGE IV. REGIS
CAP. XLV.

An ACT to regulate the Trade between His Majesty's Possessions in America and the West Indies, and other parts of the World.

24th June, 1822.

WHEREAS it is expedient to allow greater Freedom of Trade and Inter-course between the Colonies, Plantations, and Islands belonging to His Majesty in America and in the West Indies, and other parts of the World; and to repeal certain Acts now in force relating to the Trade and Inter-course hitherto allowed to be carried on between His Majesty's Colonies,

Plantations, Islands, and Places in Europe South of Cape Finisterre, and to make further provision for encouraging and extending the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, That so much of an Act passed in the 25th year of the reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled “An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trades, and for the better securing the Plantation Trade, as imposes a Duty upon the exportation of sugar, tobacco, cotton wool, indigo, ginger, logwood, fustic, dying wood, and cocoa nuts, from any of His Majesty's Plantations in America, Asia, or Africa;” also, an Act passed in the 51st year of the reign of His late Majesty King GEORGE the Third, intituled “An Act to regulate the Trade between Places in Europe south of Cape Finisterre, and certain Ports in the British colonies in North America;” also, an Act passed in the 52d year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled “an Act to permit sugar, coffee, and cocoa, to be exported from His Majesty's colonies and plantations to any Port in Europe to the south of Cape Finisterre, and corn to be imported from any such Port, and from the coast of Africa into the said colonies and plantations, under Licences granted by the Collectors and Comptrollers of the Customs;” also, so much of an Act passed in the 55th year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled “an Act to regulate the Trade between Malta and its Dependencies and His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America, and also between Malta and the United Kingdom, as relates to the Trade allowed to be carried on between the Island of Malta and the Dependencies thereof, and His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America;” also, an Act passed in the 57th year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled “an Act to extend the Privileges of the Trade of Malta to the Port of Gibraltar;” also, another Act passed in the 57th year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled “an Act to allow the Importation of Oranges and Lemons from the Azores and the Madeiras into the British Colonies in North America,” shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except as to the recovery of any Forfeiture or Penalty incurred on, or before the passing of this act: Provided nevertheless, that all acts expressly repealed by any of the said acts shall be deemed and taken to be and shall remain repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to export from any of His Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, and Islands in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and Navigated according to Law, any articles, the growth, produce, or manufacture of any such Colony, Plantation, or Island, and any articles which have been legally imported into any such Colony, Plantation, or Island, direct to any Foreign Port in Europe, or in Africa, or to Gibraltar, the Island of Malta, or the Dependencies thereof, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark; any thing contained in an act made in England, in the 12th year of the reign of His Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled “an Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, or of any other act or acts in force in the United Kingdom, or in Great-Britain or Ireland respectively, to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That before any such articles shall be laden or put on board any ship or vessel in the said Colonies, Plantations, or Islands, the Exporter shall make a regular Entry thereof with the Collector and Comptroller or His Majesty's Customs, on which Entry shall be indorsed the marks and numbers of the Packages, with the proper denomination of the Goods contained therein, and also the place, quay, or wharf which shall not be situate within the limits of a Port where a Custom-House is established, and at which place, quay or wharf an Officer shall be appointed to attend the lading and shipping of such Goods, or at such place or places as shall be mentioned in a Sufferance or Warrant to be taken out from the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs for that purpose: Provided always, that nothing in this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter the existing regulations for lading and shipping the Produce of the Fisheries of the said Colonies, Plantations, or Islands.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if upon examination of any Goods allowed to be exported from any of the said Colonies, Plantations, or Islands, under the authority of this act, either before or after the shipment thereof, or the number of the casks or packages, shall be greater than shall have been endorsed upon the Entry, or if any articles are laden and put on board any ship or vessel, for the purpose of being exported to any part of Europe or in Africa as aforesaid, without Entry thereof being made with the proper Officer of the Customs, or shall be brought to any place, quay, or wharf, or put into any hoy, boat, or other Vessel for the purpose of being shipped on board any such ship or vessel for exportation to such Foreign Port of Europe or in Africa previous to such Entry being made, or if any Goods shall be put on board or attempted to be put on board any ship or vessel intending to proceed to any such port of Europe or Africa in any manner contrary to the directions of this act, all such Goods in every such case shall be forfeited, together with the hoy, boat, or other vessel or carriage whatever employed in shipping or attempting to ship such Goods and also the ship or vessel in which the same shall be laden; and all such Goods, Vessels, Boats, and Carriages may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, and the owner thereof shall forfeit double the value of such Goods.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case any ship or vessel clearing out from the said Colonies, Plantations, or Islands, under the authority of this act shall take on board in any of the said Colonies, Plantations, or Islands, any other articles than such as are allowed to be on board and exported by virtue of this act, all such articles so taken or laden on board such ship or vessel, shall be forfeited and lost, and shall and may be seized by the Commander or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or any Commissioned, Warrant, or Petty Officer specially authorized by him or them, or by any Officer or Officers of the Customs; and the Master and Shipper of any such Goods shall severally forfeit double the value of the Goods so laden or taken on board contrary to the Directions of this act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the person exporting Fish from any British Colony or Plantation in North America, to any Port or place as aforesaid, under the authority of this Act, shall make oath at the Port of Shipment, before the Chief Officer of the Customs at such Port, or if there be no such Chief Officer of the Customs, then before a Magistrate, or if there be no Magistrate, then before two respectable persons being at such Port or Ports (which Oath such Officer of the Customs, or Magistrate, or such respectable Persons as aforesaid, are hereby authorized to administer) that the said Fish is the produce of the British Fisheries, really and bona fide taken and cured by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the said Fisheries from some of the British Colonies or Plantations in North America.

VII. And be it further enacted, That before the shipment of any pickled Fish or dry Fish for the purpose of exportation from Canada to any port or place as aforesaid, under the authority of this Act, the person in the possession of such Fish, shall make oath before the Chief Officer of the Customs at such Port, or if there be no such Chief Officer of the Customs, then before a Magistrate, or if there be no Magistrate, then before two respectable persons being at such Port or Ports (which Oath such Officer of the Customs, or Magistrate, or such respectable Persons as aforesaid, are hereby authorized to administer) that the said Fish is the produce of the British Fisheries, really and bona fide taken and cured by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on the said Fisheries from some of the British Colonies or Plantations in North America.

VII. And be it further enacted, That before the shipment of any pickled Fish or dry Fish for the purpose of exportation from Canada to any port or place as aforesaid, under the authority of this Act, the person in
