BOSTON, DEC. 23.

A schooner of about 170 tons, with Dutch colors, armed with 9 pounders, and having on board 237 slaves, was captured Nov. 2d, by the British government sch'r Union, after a running fight of three hours, and carried into Port Royal, Jam.

A letter from St. Jago, Cuba, Oct. 25th, mentions the arrival of 2 vessels from Havana, with 47,000 dls. for Gen. Morales—that an expedition was fitting out, destination not known—and that 4000 troops had arrived at Principe on their way to St. Jago, to join it.

Baltimore, Dec. 17—The fast sailing sch'r Blucher, arrived here yesterday in 33 days from Cadiz.—There were in the port of Cadiz two French ships of the line and four frigates, with several smaller vessels.—The French were putting naval stores for three years in the city of Cadiz. There were about 3000 men there. The Spanish men of war, as they arrived from sea, were sent to the navy yard, stripped and laid up. The Spanish troops were not permitted to be under arms in the city. The French frigate Le Tonante sailed from Cadiz on the 5th Nov. with a Spanish Governor for Havana, and to bring home the present one. It is possible this measure may produce some agitation in Cuba.

A little disagreement has again arisen between the Gov. of Canada and the Legislature on the appointment of Sheriff Sewell.—The Legislature has before it a Bill respecting the importation of Tea.

IMPORTANT—At Washington, on the 15th inst. the Committee of Foreign Relations was summoned to meet at an early hour—and there are rumours that the subject for consideration was a proposition from England for a union in favour of the independence of South America.

We were informed yesterday, by good authority, that Spain has actually ceded Cuba to France.—N. Y. Gaz.

It was reported at New-York on Thursday last, that the public would find the rumour of the cession of Cuba to France correct—and that the President was undoubtedly apprised of the fact before he delivered his late Message.

The President's Message has been translated into Spanish, by a South American Patriot at Baltimore, printed as a pamphlet, with a preface, and is to be sent to Mexico, Colombia, &c.

A London paper states, that nearly thirty sail of vessels had been driven on shore on the French coast, near Havre, on the 1st. Nov.

It was reported at Havana, on the 3d inst. that the Castle of St. Juan de Ulloa had surrendered to the Mexicans.

From Lisbon, Nov. 13.—Capt. Lane heard reports that an expedition was to be sent to Brazil, but saw no preparations for it. There were 10 vessels of war in port.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

London Papers to the 10th ult. have been received by an arrival at New-York.

All the cities of Spain appear to have submitted to the French, except Carthagena.

We have the British Traveller and Courier of the 10th, both of which incline to be of opinion that the government will make a decided stand against any measures which the Holy Alliance may adopt to replace the South American Provinces under the controul of Spain. A number of vessels of war were fitting out in England, for foreign service.

It was reported that the King of France was seriously indisposed.

The French are to have important commercial privileges in the Spanish Colonies—but they must have peace to enjoy them.

France has garrisoned Alegziras, near Gibraltar, and sent a force to Ceuta.

The King of Spain, has ordered his confessor and Prime Minister, Saez, to prepare a project respecting the revolted Colonies.

The Spanish King is said to be very flippant in his orders for sending ships of war to America—but none can move unless money can be found for their equipment.

Information from Constantinople is to Oct. 10. The Janissaries appear to have again become mutinous.

English Funds at London, November, 10 Consols for Acct. opened at 83 and rose to 83 1/8.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 19.—The advices from Madrid, are to the 3d of Nov. and those from Cadiz not so late as have been received here direct.

Lerida was occupied by the French on the 31st of Oct. and the troops of the garrison, to the number of 5000, surrendered prisoners of war.

The Duke d'Angouleme arrived at Madrid on the 1st of Nov. attended by an escort of only 30 dragoons, and 30 gendarmes. He was accompanied by the Prince of Carignan.

There seems to have been some commotion in Barcelona, but by the latest date from Mataro, (Nov. 1) it would seem that the troubles had been appeased, and it was supposed the French would enter the city immediately. During the troubles, Mina it is said, found rebels among his old accomplices, and was obliged, himself, to take refuge in the midst of his troops, to save himself from the militiamen. He had arrested the famous Costa, a chief of that band. Marshal Moncey has sent to Paris the conditions of the capitulation, which are approved and signed by the Commissioners and Generals in Chief of both armies. All the Constitutional Chiefs in Estremadura have made their submission, with the exception of the Empecinado who has not yet sent in his. The Brigadier Laguna took possesion of the fortress of Badajoz on the 29th of Oct.

The accounts from Constantinople are to the 19th of Oct. The pacific disposition of the Ottoman Porte has caused in that city a remarkable activity. Liberty of Commerce, and privileges to the Europeans have again been granted.

The interview of the two Emperors (of Austria and Russia,) at Czernowilz, has made a great impression on the Divan.

The last letters from Greece state, that the fleet of the Capt. Pacha has arrived in the Dardanelles, and gone into the port of Constantinople. The above letters also stated, that the movements of the Janissaries cause great alarm to the Government.

MADRID, Oct 25.—Ferdinand still so far depends on his resources, that he has already given orders to send to the Havana, and then to Lima, the poor remains of the Spanish Navy, consisting of the Asia ship of the line, two frigates, a corvette and two brigs. This expedition will be seconded by some French vessels, which will join it in America. It is also affirmed that the French commerce, will enjoy henceforth, at the Havana and in the colonies which are not yet independent, several important privileges. The journey of his Royal Highness to Madrid, preceded by his head quarters, is an indication of the return of part of the army to France, which at the same time, will scour the provinces of Alicant, Carthagena, Valencia and Arragon on the one side, and Andalusia, La Mancha and Castille, on the other.

CORDOVA, Oct. 23.—Don Victor Saez, is occupied by order of the King with the grand affairs of the colonies; these fine and rich possessions, will soon, we do not doubt be again in possession of the King.

PORTSMOUTH, Nov. 8.—The Cambridge, of 80 guns, is ordered for active service, with a crew of 700 men. It is conjectured she is intended for the South American station.

The Windsor Castle, of 80 guns, is also ordered on the war establishment, instead of the Genoa, whose crew has been turned over to the former vessel.

The 12th regiment has just embarked on board the Ganges, 80, and the Superb 74,
