QUARTERLY MEETING

District No. 3

On June 3rd—6th inclusive, the Beals, Maine, Church entertained the churches of the District.

The first message of the session was brought on Thursday evening by Rev. H. S. Wilson, from 1 Kings 18:31 on the subject—"Need of fire and effect of the same."

On Friday evening, Rev. S. G. Hilyard spoke from Jonah 1:3, using as his topic—"Paying the fare."

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 the business session opened with the president, Rev. F. A. Anderson, in the chair. All the pastors of the district were present. Every church reported by letter, and all but two were represented by delegates. The reports from the churches were encouraging.

In the evening, Rev. E. R. Watson spoke from John 17:23, using the headings—"I know, you know, the world knows, and God knows."

The prayer and praise meeting Sunday morning was in charge of Lic. Clayton Alley, using as the basis of the lesson the third chapter of Colossians, referring to what the true children of God are like.

The morning message was delivered by Rev. J. A. Owens, basing his remarks around Deuteronomy 22:10—"Entering of sin and the fall of man."

In the afternoon, Rev. H. S. Wilson spoke from Hebrews 13:12, 13—"Christ's sufferings that we might be sanctified as well as saved."

The closing message of the quarterly was brought by Rev. R. T. Sabine, using as a text Matthew 9:5—"Christ meeting the needs of the human heart."

Several hands were raised for prayer during the session.

Brother Anderson and his people gave us a fine welcome and entertained us royally.

This Quarterly was the best attended of the year, specially the large attendance from other parts of the District. The next Quarterly will convene with our church at Wood Island.

To God be all the praise and glory.

RONALD T. SABINE,
Secretary.

"IN THE BEGINNING, GOD ..."

It was GOD in the very beginning,

Who created the heaven and earth—

I pause in the midst of my reading

To see what that lesson is worth.

Since 'tis God in the very beginning,

How can I go farther back

To find any other Creator

But God, with such power as that?

It was God in the very beginning,

Who gave to creation His best

In labor, six days out of seven,

And then came the Sabbath of rest.

I'm reading again in my Bible,

For more of the Story to find,

And there it says God is a Spirit

Of Love, and exceedingly kind.

I know it—creation declares it!

By everything round me I see;

For my needs He has wisely provided,

Each moment and hour—night and day.

What, then, in return can I give Him

For all His love lavished on me?

I'll give to God from the beginning,

My life, and my all—His to be.

—Albert E. Elliott.

AN INDICTMENT OF THE MOVIES

From the Christian Advocate comes the following keen criticism of a common channel through which flows much sewage for the poisoning of life: "Prostitutes are being glamorized, rakes are made to appear respectable, little or nothing can be undertaken without the aid of a cigarette, all social recreation must be saturated in alcohol, the marriage vow is nullified, domestic relations are made a mockery, nudity is applauded, inanity is glossed over with technicolor, jungle ethics are paraded before our children, decency is made to appear dull, Protestant clergymen almost without exception are represented as simpletons, sacred things are made common, and sobriety is ridiculed." Yet the movies are attended to a much greater extent than are the churches.

—Selected.

WOULD YOU?

I would be true, for there are those who trust me,

I would be pure, for there are those who care;

I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;

I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all—the foe, the friendless;

I would be giving, and forget the gift;

I would be humble, for I know my weakness;

I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift.

—Howard A. Walker.

BELIEVE GOD!

Faith is the root of all blessings. Believe, and you shall be saved; believe, and you must needs be satisfied; believe, and you cannot but be comforted and happy.—Jeremy Taylor.

MARRIED

Stephenson-White

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Marysville, N. B., June 12th, Eleanor Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William White, was united in marriage to Charles David Stephenson, of Marysville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Watson.

THE VALUE OF HARD PLACES

a crown that will never pass away. When history is forgotten and the records of time are obliterated, when the solar system is but a cinder, and new heavens and a new earth are sweeping in the orbits of immensity, these lives will shine, these records will be told again, these characters will be there—the lives that will share with God Himself the government of the heavens and the earth, and the glories of that coming Age for which all things are now preparing.

Beloved, shall we save our sorrows? Shall we win a crown for life's conflict? Shall we get out of the things that are happening today all that our Christ has for us? Shall we be "more than conquerors through him that loved us?" And shall we endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ? If so, we shall one day hear Him say unto us: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant  enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."
