It is asserted again, that there is no doubt of the determination of the Russian Cabinet to come to a decisive arrangement with the Porte, relative to the affairs of Greece. Orders have been sent to the commanding General, it is said, to concentrate the troops, amounting to 100,000, on the Pruth.

It is said that Austria will have on foot two Armies of Observation, of 60,000 men each, one of which will be placed in Italy, the other in Transylvania. Several regiments have already set out from Bohemia for Italy, where the army will be commanded by General Rousseau, Trap and Leopard, who have just been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Generals. It is thought that the army in Transylvania, is to support Russia, in case the Porte refuses the pacification of Greece.

It is said, that the empress of Austria, is to be crowned next month, at Prague, as Queen of Bohemia. In case of the death of her Imperial consort, she will enjoy the revenues attached to the rank of the Queen Dowager, of Austria.
