 SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
 Fredericton, 9th March, 1827.

SATISFACTORY assurances having been conveyed to His Majesty's Government of the earnest wish of the Government of the United States to reciprocate the conciliatory disposition shown in regard to the Disputed Territory, at the upper part of the River Saint John, it is most desirable, until the question relating thereto shall be finally settled, that no new settlements shall be made, or any timber or other resources felled, in the wilderness part of that Territory, nor any act done which may change the state of the question as it existed when the Treaty of Ghent was executed.

I am therefore commanded by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor to desire that you will be vigilant and use your most diligence to discover any attempts which may be made by any of His Majesty's subjects to intrude upon any part of that Territory with a view to make settlements or to procure timber, and to make immediate representation thereof to His Majesty's Attorney General, that legal steps may be taken to punish such Intruders and Trespassers; and should you discover similar attempts to be made by any persons whether unauthorized or appearing to act under colour of authority, that you will use your best endeavours to ascertain the names of such persons and report the same to me, with affidavits to establish the facts, for His Excellency's consideration.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

CATHOLIC PETITION.

On Saturday the 31 ult. the following Address was presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor by the House of Assembly.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty; The humble Address of the House of Representatives in General Assembly:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY.
WE, the Representatives of your Majesty's Faithful Commons of Nova-Scotia, tender to your Majesty, the assurances of our earnest and loyal attachment; and respectfully beg leave to offer this humble Address.

Ever solicitous for the maintenance of those institutions, which form the sources of our power, while they constitute the objects of our pride; We gladly avail ourselves of any occasion which can give them additional strength.

We have ever thought, that where a community of civil interests exists, it was there expedient to create a unity of public feeling: such unity it has been the study of your Majesty's Faithful Commons to promote, and its fruits are now happily visible in the general aspect of the Province.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty, that your Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects in this Province, are second to none in loyalty and attachment. We have been the witnesses of their civil conduct, and it is but a testimony due to truth, when we say that they evince as zealous a disposition for the maintenance of your Majesty's Government, as any other denomination of your Majesty's loyal subjects.

Convinced from a length of fortunate experience, how auspicious for the future interests of the Province such a condition is, we feel that we shall best consult our own prosperity, by using every method in our power to insure its continuance.

We have already under the sanction of your Majesty's Government, removed every restrictive law upon your Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects of this Province, which has been followed by their gratitude, and willing to pause, we would now solicit the gracious exercise of your Majesty's prerogative for their additional benefit, and in compliance with the unanimous voice of your Faithful Commons, we solicit, that you would be graciously pleased to dispense with the "Declarations against Popery and Transubstantiation" as inapplicable to the present situation of this Country, and tending to create invidious distinctions among your Majesty's loyal subjects.

Devoted to our duties as the representatives of your Majesty's Faithful Commons, we feel confident your Majesty will accept this Address. And when your Majesty considers that we appeal to Heaven for the due fulfilment of our duties, and that we consecrate by the sanctions of religion our natural attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, your Majesty will accept these our solemn pledges as adequate securities.

Confident in your Majesty's favourable construction of this Address, your Faithful Commons hope, eventually, to find that tho' at our several altars, we may practice our several faiths, yet at that public Altar, where the spirit of our country presides, the only Creed will be that of Christianity.

FROM THE BOSTON CENTINEL.

The letter from which the following extracts are given we know to be from a highly respectable source.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman of this City now in Virginia, dated

"RICHMOND, (Va.) March, 19, 1827.
 I arrived at this place about three days since, and to-morrow shall probably leave for Petersburg, where, after remaining a day or two, shall take the Boat for Norfolk and put my face toward home.

"In spite of all my efforts to the contrary, I find myself a stranger in this section of the country; notwithstanding I have travelled the country before and have more or less acquaintance in all the principal places through which I pass. The notions, and habits, and views and feelings of the people here are altogether so different from those of New-England, that I can discover no similarity between them; it would require at least a more familiar acquaintance with them to banish from my mind the old steady habits of Massachusetts. In this place I find all the different fruit trees in bloom out excepting apple, and yet the cold had been so severe a few days past, as to endanger the fruit. It is astonishing what a spirit pervades the minds of the people in these parts in regard to the next Candidate for President—they are determined right or wrong, to oust ADAMS, and for this purpose they have espoused the cause of JACKSON. But the great leaders in this business have no more regard for JACKSON than any other person, except as an instrument to put down ADAMS, and to effect this purpose they seem ready to make every sacrifice. What the consequence will be time only can tell.—I think I can discover enough in the signs of the times, to verify predictions that have been stamped with treason and insanity, that we have in the Country seed
