

PROPOSALS
FOR PUBLISHING
A Religious Newspaper,
TO BE ENTITLED
THE CHRISTIAN
REPORTER.

The object of this journal is to disseminate through the Canada, that sacred knowledge, and religious intelligence which may advance the general interests of vital piety. Theological Essays, Religious Biography, Biblical Criticism, Religious and Moral Poetry, and a narrative of revivals of Religion, in various parts of the world, shall occupy a prominent place in its pages. It shall contain an outline of the state and progress of those Religious Societies, which so hopefully characterize the age in which we live. A summary of Political Intelligence, Foreign and Provincial, shall occupy two or three columns of each number. The Editors pledge themselves that the political doctrines which may appear in the pages of this paper shall be in perfect accordance with the principles of the British Constitution. Selections shall be made from the best European and American publications of a similar nature; and the Editors hope that the contributions of not a few Clerical Brethren, together with their own exertions, will render the Original department not unworthy the approbation of the Christian public. Usefulness, they trust, is their aim; and while other countries have found religious periodicals, one of the most powerful minor instruments in extending the influence of our common Christianity, they most devoutly wish, that this publication may become influential in advancing the best interests of this community.

A Religious Magazine, to be entitled "The Sentinel; or Anglo-American Churchman's Magazine;" and to be published once in two months, has been lately announced. From the well known abilities of its learned and respectable Editor, we have no doubt but that it will be of great service to the members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese; but as professedly, it is to be devoted to the interests of that Church, instead of rendering another religious publication unnecessary, it rather inspires a clearer conviction of the necessity of a Journal to be conducted on such principles as may embrace the views, and deserve the support of the Ministers and Members of the other Protestant denominations in these Provinces.

As the object of both the proposed publications is to do good through the medium of the press, and as their respective plan and limits are so distinctly marked, there can be no interference between them, save that of a generous emulation to render the Sentinel and Christian Reporter worthy the patronage of their Subscribers and Friends. It needs only further to be remarked, that nothing shall appear in the pages of the CHRISTIAN REPORTER opposed to the doctrines of the Reformation—that it shall disseminate no personal remarks—and engage in no political discussions.

CONDITIONS.

The REPORTER shall be published weekly, on a sheet of royal folio—and in a clear and handsome type.

Each Subscriber shall pay 3 dollars a year, one half in advance; and the remainder at the end of the year.

All arrears must be paid before any subscription can be discontinued, except at the discretion of the Proprietor.

Every person becoming responsible for 8 copies, is entitled to a 9th gratis.

Should 400 subscribers be obtained, the first number of the REPORTER may be expected on the first May.

Communications designed solely for insertion should be addressed to the Editors of the CHRISTIAN REPORTER, Courier Office, Montreal. Those on business, or containing remittances, should be addressed to
