To the Independent Electors of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,
I having been represented to me from various parts of County, that my coming forward at the ensuing Election, will meet with your approbation and support; I have determined to offer myself (for the first time) to your notice, as a Candidate for your suffrages, with the assurance on my part, that should your confidence induce you to place me in the high and responsible situation of one of your Representatives in General Assembly, you may rely upon my utmost exertions on all occasions to promote the best interests of the County at Large.

I have only to add that I come forward upon independent principles, unconnected with any party, and not in opposition to any particular individual, wishing to stand or fall by the Character I have sustained since I have been among you. As to how far I may possess abilities sufficient to qualify me for the situation, it would not become me to give an opinion; but this, I will venture to say, that though you may find many better qualified in that respect, you can produce no one possessing more good will for, and sincere desire to serve you, than

Your most Obedient,
and very humble Servant,
GEORGE F. STREET.
Fredericton, May 31, 1827.

To the Electors of York County.

GENTLEMEN,
UNDER the impression that there was generally a feeling towards a change in the Representation of this (particularly in an Agricultural view) most important section of the Province; I come forward to offer my services as a Candidate for your Suffrages at the General Election soon to take place.—I am perfectly aware that my attainments are not such, as would entitle me to expect much consideration on that ground, but I would willingly hope that my conduct which has been open to your observation for very many years, would long since have convinced the most incredulous, that my motives are pure, and have had the public good only for their object.—As to interest, (a principle predominant in most minds,) I can have none in which yours are not identified.

One word only as to professions.—Should I be one of the persons whom you may honor with the privilege of Representing you in General Assembly—depend upon me when I assure you, my most anxious desire will be to promote your Interest and to protect your Rights.

HENRY SMITH.
Fredericton, 1st June, 1827.

To the Electors of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,
THE time having expired for which I was elected to represent you in the General Assembly of this Province, I again solicit your suffrages at the ensuing Election; and if I should be so honoured as to obtain a majority of your Votes, you may rely that every attention in my power will be paid to our mutual Interest; and I have no doubt but that with the experience I have had as a Legislator of giving you ultimate satisfaction.

I have the honour to be,
Gentlemen,
Your most obedient,
and humble Servant,
JEDEDIAH SLASON.
Fredericton, 4th June, 1827.

To the Freeholders of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,
AS the time will speedily arrive when you will be called upon to exercise the right of British Subjects in electing Members to represent you in General Assembly; and having been solicited to come forward at this time as a Candidate for your suffrages, I take this method of informing you, that it is my intention so to do, assuring you that should I be elected, my abilities shall be exerted for the welfare of the Province at large, and of this County in particular.

I have the honour to be,
Gentlemen,
Your very obdt. Servant,
WILLIAM TAYLOR.
Fredericton, June, 4, 1827.

To the Electors of the County of York.

GENTLEMEN,
As you will soon be called upon by the King's Writ to exercise one of the dearest rights of a British Subject; That is, the Election of Members to represent you in General Assembly, I now take this mode of announcing my intention to offer as a Candidate for your Suffrages, and having once had the honor of being a Member, I am well aware that it places your fellow Subject in a very important, and responsible situation; and should you think proper to repose so high a trust in me, I hope my conduct in that capacity will evince you of my independence and integrity.

I have the honor, &c.
W. WILMOT.
