

ing, and Mr. Vallieres appointed a Committee to wait upon His Excellency and learn at what hour he would be pleased to receive it. We understand that Mr. Vallieres with others, after the adjournment of the Assembly, accordingly went up to the Chateau to know when His Lordship would receive the House with their Address; when it was communicated to them, that no Address, nor Message relative to an Address would be received until the House was duly organized by the appointment of a Speaker approved of by the Crown.

The above is a statement of facts as they have arisen, upon which we at present forbear to comment; it must however be obvious to all who were present at the proceedings, that under these unpleasant and unusual circumstances, common sense, the Parliamentary usage of the Mother Country, the precedent of a neighbouring Colony and the acknowledged right of the Crown, were on one side; on the other, the numerical strength of the Canadian House of Assembly.—The proceedings were tumultuary, and on the side of the majority, evinced rather a determination to avail themselves of their force than to be guided by reason.

COMMISSIONER FOR THE WEEK, GEO. F. STREET, Esq.

SAVINGS BANK.

TRUSTEES NEXT WEEK, HENRY G. CLOPPER, ESQ. JAMES TAYLOR, ESQ. JEDEDIAH SLASON, ESQ.

By His Excellency Major-General Sir HOWARD DOUGLAS, Baronet, Lieut. (L. S.) tenant-Governor, and Commander-in-Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of this Province stands prorogued to the Second Tuesday of this instant December: I have thought fit further to prorogue the said General Assembly, and the same is hereby further prorogued to the second Tuesday in January next ensuing.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the Tenth day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and in the eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command. WM. F. ODELL.

His Excellency, we learn, although suffering so long from the effects of the attack we first mentioned, continues to gain strength daily: and it is with great pleasure, therefore, that we may now confidently anticipate His Excellency's speedy recovery.

We were sorry to hear that Lady Douglas had been indisposed; and that sickness, for the last few days, had partially prevailed throughout His Excellency's Family: but we have good reason to believe that we shall be enabled to report more favorably in our next.

By the Halifax Papers we have received very interesting and important news, relative to the opening of the Provincial Parliament of Lower Canada, which will be found in another Column. We abstain from making any comments at present, as we may reasonably expect more detailed information by the next Canada Mail.

Some able articles will also be found in this Impression on the affairs of Spain, but we have no room for the remarks we had prepared thereon: In mitigation, however, of the severe aspect which those paragraphs present, we are indebted to the Halifax Royal Gazette for the following extract:— GIBRALTAR, Oct. 25

The early submission of the Rebel Bands in Catalonia, and the precipitate and disorderly flight of the principal leader himself (Jeps dels Etans) on the 11th inst., when he saw himself overtaken by the King's troops in Berga, rendering it highly probable that the entire pacification of the Province will shortly be accomplished, His Majesty has sent for his Queen. She was to leave Madrid yesterday, and will arrive at Valencia on the 31st. There she is to be joined by her Royal Husband, and they are afterwards to proceed to Tarragona.

Having just received the following communication, which we esteem of much interest to delay inserting; we willingly put aside several articles we had selected and prepared for this number, and beg to assure "Ne Plus Ultra" we shall at all times be happy to hear from him.

Mr. LUGRIN, Presuming that your Paper will reach the town of Bangor, in the neighbouring State, I beg the favor of a part of your Columns to make a few observations on a communication in the "BANGOR REGISTER" of the 28th ult., under the signature "TERMINUS" and, intitled "NORTH-EASTERN BOUNDARY, No. 1."

I wish that writer had omitted some expressions, which create irritation, without adding in the smallest degree to the strength of his proofs, or force of his reasoning—Such as these, "The lofty and insulting pretensions and the repeated aggressions of the British"—"British cupidity and British Effrontery." They are abusive terms, and such are, at the present, not generally used by liberal and gentlemanly men. Great Britain claims the Territory called, emphatically, "The Disputed Territory," as of right belonging to her under the Treaty of 1783—so do the United States—the Territory is equally valuable to both Nations, and it is equally for the honor and interest of both, to maintain their several claims; nor should either abuse the other for so doing.

The Inhabitants of the State of Maine might with equal propriety have talked of aggressions, when the British Government in possession of the Town of St. Andrews, after it was claimed by the United States... Let Terminus look at the Map attached to Judge Sullivan's "History of the District of Maine," in which the Magagua davic is considered the River St. Croix," and the Boundary Line in the Judge's Map is drawn from the source of that River to the High Lands.

I am not aware that the British abused the Americans or the learned Judge for making a claim since acknowledged to be unfounded; nor did the Americans abuse the British, for not yielding up the possession of Saint Andrews upon the claim being made—And who can tell whether the claim now made to the Madawaska Settlement will not prove equally unfounded "What has happened may happen again.... Let us be moderate and patient and respectful towards each other; in short, conduct in the way of two Gentlemen, who were litigating for a boundary, which affected materially the value of their respective Estates.

If Terminus were to use similar Terms of abuse towards those who might differ from him on the construction of some passages in the SCRIPTURES, I think he would be justly charged with Intolerance.

I will forbear troubling you further at the present, but shall claim a like indulgence next week, and perhaps on a future occasion, that I may use my endeavours to make a convert of "Terminus" to his Friend NE PLUS ULTRA. Highlands, Dec. 10, 1827.
